COLUMBIA CAPERS:

Links host successful, fun-filled fundraiser

By Pinnie L. Ross

Just recently, the Columbia Chapter of Links, Inc, sponsored a fabulous fundraiser, the affair was held at the new Hilton Inn Columbia.

It was a Black tie affair that brought a capacity filled Ballroom to help celebrate their Emerald Ball.

The planning of the affair began two months before it took place, with a committee of hard working sister Links.

Suzanne Price, who served as treasurer and secretary, was efficient as always. Janice Skinner, co - chaired the affair and worked in all capacities. Marilyn Beale was ticket chairperson and did a "super" job collecting and assigning tables as members paid for tickets.

Zoola Boone and Sondra Gray was also part of the committee. They helped in planning the affair and served as hostesses the night of the affair.

Link ladies sent out beautiful invitations to their guests in colors of buff and green. The response was unbelievable. Guests came from Washington, DC, Silver Spring, Virginia and North Carolina to witness the 2nd Emerald Ball sponsored by the Links.

A decor of buff, green and white was used throughout. Each table was garnished with a centerpiece of green felt circle design topped with a white lace doily and a vase of live flowers in a variety of colors. Each hostess was given the live flowers at the close of the dance.

Guests started arriving at 9 p.m. and did they look stunning wearing beautiful materials of chiffon and silks in a variety of colors and rhinestones, sequins, pearls and stones that sparkled the night away.

A beautifully decorated buffet was set up across the hall with a variety of foods There was a fascinating steamship of beef, shrimp and scallops, prepared before your eyes. Very nice indeed, and really tasty.

From the buffet to the dance floor were the special guests dancing to the soothing music of Baltimore's own Bill Cummings.

If you know Bill, you should know that he was on his best behavior with the Fabulous Link ladies as far as his music goes.

At Intermission, our gracious president, Dr. Sandra Noel Smith came forward and gave the purpose and background of the organization and introduced the members of the organization.

Miss Smith beamed all evening in the presence of her dear father who came from North Carolina to join the fun Dr R L Smith, a happy 7? year - old medical doctor from Winston ? Salem, North Carolina.

Among other distinguished guests was Mrs. Nan Johnson, Links Naational Headquarte?s official, who was guest of Suzanne Price. ed president Gloria Massey, Carolyn Stibbs, Silver Spring Chapter; all guests of Mrs. Price Jarvis and Dr. Charlene Drew, Link Member District of?f Columbia and candidate for ?ayor of DC; Delores Pruitt from the Nashbille Chapter.

Also from the DC area came Attorney and Mrs. Ray Mundle and former ambassador Theodora Britton nd his lovely wife Vernell.

Guests from Baltimore includedMr. and Mrs. Paul Beckmon, Dr. and Mrs Garland Chissell, Dr. and Mrs. Lionel Desbordes, Mr. and MRs. Ken Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Los Lewis. (Lois); Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Myers from Bethesda and Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Doyle who were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Emerson Walden.

Dr. and Mrs. Chester Gee missed the affair due to an ankle injury in a tennis match the morning of the affair.

Mrs. Ranor Woolford, AKA's president was in attendance, Ethel Hill, president of Business & Professional Women; Dena Kelly, Jack & Jill president; Mrs. Hazel Rayford, corresponding secretary and Hazel Erwin, financial secretary, members of Club Dejouir were present.

Since 1975 when the Columbia Chapter was established, the group has been committed to the development of close friendships in order to strengthen the unity of the total body.

The members of the Links Inc. mourn the loss of Dr. James Cooper, husband of Link Jeanne Cooper. Dr. Cooper was killed in an automobile accident last week. Her son David is in fair condition in Petersburg General Hospital. We pray for his speedy recovery.

Owingses fete graduate son

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Owings Jr., held open house Sunday, May 23 following graduation of Mt. St. Joseph High School, where their 18 - year - old son, Kerry, was among the 290 grads.

He has been accepted at Lincoln University, PA.

Reception guests were greeted by a huge banner at the Norfolk Ave. home, which read: "Congratulations, Kerry," designed by neighbors Angela and Debby Patterson.

During the reception young guests entertained from the Baltimore School for the Arts, where his younger brother, Richard, is a junior.

Organ and piano numbers were performed by Wendell Farmer. Vocal solos were by Jacqueline Walker. Both are juniors.

Out - of - town relatives and friends here included the honoree's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ophelia Moore, Lynneville, TN., aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Owings, and daughter, Lynette, Reston, VA., and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Don Reid and daughters, Kim and Kelly, Gaithersburg, MD.

Family friends, Dr. and Mrs. William Harris, came from Philadelphia. Godparents present included Dr. and Mrs. Lionel Desbordes and Dr. and Mrs. Earl Clay of Columbia.

Other guests: Messrs. and Mesdames David Driver (aunt of the honoree); Jesse Hughes, Doward Patterson, Hiram Butler, Willie E. Harris, Wilbert Jones, Norman Branch, Edward Williams and daughter, Debbie; Alfred Woolridge, Benjamin M. Phillips IV, Herbert Stith, George L. Russe,, Jr., Vince Petrosino, Nathanie Jackson Jr., Charles Robinson;

Bowers' 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Bowers Sr., celebrated their fiftieth wedding vows at St. Paul's Baptist Church on Sunday, May 9, 1982.

They were married on May 11, 1932 in Baltimore, MD.

The Reverend George A. Crawley, pastor of their church, conducted the afternoon ceremony.

Mrs. Martha Bowers (maiden name Lancaster) was escorted down the aisle by her son, Charles R. Bowers Jr.. She was attended by her maid of honor of fifty years ago, Mrs. Gladys Johnson Knox.

Bowers had as his best man his nephew, Mr. Carl L. Thornton.

The music was played by Dr. Beryl Williams with a solo by Leonard Henderson.

After the ceremony, a reception was given by Ms. Dorothy Bowers and Mrs. Virginia Dickerson, both of Asbury Park, NJ., sisters - in - law of the couple, in the lower hall of the church. It was attended by over 100 relatives and friends.

Both Martha and Charles Bowers were born in Baltimore and grew up in West Baltimore. Before Bowers' retirement sixteen years ago, he was a delivery truck driver for the Consolidated Delivery Company for forty years.

Mrs. Bowers worked during World War II at the Fayette - Bennett War Nursery School. They have resided for thirty - three years on the Alameda Boulevard in Wilson Park.

They have one child, Charles R. Bowers Jr., who was among the second group of black students to attend Polytechnic High School in 1954.

He is a graduate of the University of Tampa and has served in the U.S. Air Force for twenty years. He is now a Chief, Senior Master Sergeant stationed in England. His family lives in Brandon, Florida.

Sgt. William T. 'Bill' Clark retires

The retirement dinner celebration hosted for Sergeant William T. "Bill" Clark at the Forum recently was an occasion, beauty and joy.

During the festive affair attended by a capacity crowd, Sgt. Clark, a 28 - year veteran of the Baltimore City Police Department was lauded and applauded, but throughout the ream of praise heaped upon him ran a thread of humor which truly depicted him as a many - faceted man.

Coordinator and toastmaster for the occasion was Major Edward Tilghman, who kept the evening lively.

Following cocktails and a delicious dinner, words of praise for the veteran policeman were spoken by head - table guests who included the Rev. John Coleman and Mrs. Charlotte Harper of the Sharp St. United Methodist Church (where Clark serves on the Trustee Board), Major John Barnes, Deputy Commissioner Bishop Robinson, Mrs. Frances Johnson (the honoree's sister) Major Edward Woods and Sgt. Clark's son, William T. Clark III (Billy).

All spoke of his kindness, dedication, compunction to "do the right thing," ability and willingness to serve and his inspiration to others in their quest for upward mobility in the department.

Many of the officers present who had received promotions after furthering their education gave Clark the credit for inspiring them to "Get that education" and move onward and upward.

Sgt. William Clark
Retired

Most touching were the remarks from the honoree's son Billy, who had asked that a pair of his father's shoes be brought to The Forum.

Billy recalled how, as a youngster, he had tried on his father's shoes, only to find that they did not fit him. In lauding his dad as a great father and human being, he stated that, even as a man, "It would be hard for me to fill my father's shoes."

Mrs. Harper spoke, among other things, of the radiant smile which is a trademark of the honoree.

City councilman Michael Mitchell (4th D.), conferred on Sgt. Clark the Fourth Councilmanic District Community Service Award, the Mayor's Citation and the Baltimore City Council Award.

Other gifts included a unique artistic shirt made entirely of money (bills) with quarters for buttons and a necktie striped with greenbacks, presented to the honoree by his family.

Clark is a graduate of Douglass High School, Class of 1944. He served in the U.S. Air Force from January 1944 until May, 1946. He has been married for over thirty years to Virginia Raleigh Clark, a county schoolmarm, formerly of Greensboro, NC.

The Clarks have three offsprings — sons Billy and Guy Clark and daughter, Sabrina (Candy).

Clark entered the Baltimore Police Department in April, 1954. He has worked in the Southwest, Western and Northwest Districts, (where he was promoted to sergeant in 1969.)

He returned to school and was awarded the B.A. degree in Sociology in June, 1968 (Morgan) and has served as Community Relations Sergeant in the Northwest District until 1972.

Since 1972 he has worked in the Southeast District, the Property Division (where he was placed in charge of Building Security and later the Message Center) where he remained until his retirement on May 3, 1982.

During his career he has served as foot patrolman, worked the post car, radio car cruising patrol and also served as seater supervisor, Headquarters security supervisor and mail unit supervisor.

One can only wish the best for one who has served so well, and, along the way, has gathered so many friends and so much respect and love.

Others on hand to wish him the best included Mrs. Bishop Robinson, Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Louise Campbell (sister, Mrs. William T. Clark III,) daughter - in - law; Tamara C. Clark (granddaughter), Juana Donastorgy, of St. Thomas, the Virgin Islands, Miss Yvonne Raleigh, sister - in - law, Washington, DC and a hosto of other friends and relatives.

Family and guests lingered to chat with Clark and his wife, Virginia, who also hosted the affair, and to enjoy cocktails.

Masonic School of Instruction crowns May Ball queen

Deacon and Mrs. William Tolliver were very proud parents when their daughter Patricia D. Renwick, was crowned the May Ball Queen of the Hiram Grand Masonic Order's School of Instruction recently at East Wind.

There were fourteen contestants who had entered the competition. First runner - up was Sandra Jenkins; second runner -up, Evelyn D. Harvey.

Not only were Mr. and Mrs. Tolliver proud of their daughter, Mrs. Renwick, who is a kindergarten teacher at the Moravia Park Primary School, but their son - in - law Warren Renwick as well. He was a graduate of 1982 from the Master Mason Class on the Sunday after the May Ball, at at Metropolitan Church, where the Rev. Irvin C. Lockman is pastor.

At the May Ball, some of the dignitaries escorted in to music were Mary Claybourne, of WWIN Radio and husband, Most Wonderful Grand Master John V. Thornton, Mary Conaway, a candidate for the Register of Wills office, Deputy Master Columbus McNeil, Past Grand Matron Helen V. Benton, Peter Moralis, special assistant to Senator Charles Mac Mathias, Grand Lodge physician Dr. Roland M. Williams and Deputy Director of Family and Children's Services Gloria Warren.

The Queen received a bouquet of roses, a crown, scepter, a banner, a check for $525.00 and a plaque from the Grand Lodge, and a Certificate of Appreciation from Senator Charles Mac Mathias.

First runner up got $200, a bouquet of roses and a certificate from Mathias, second runner - up got a bouquet and a certificate from Mathias.

Monies from the May Ball Queen pageant goes to the Department of Social Services to help sponsor camperships for needy city youngsters.
