

THE ARMY HAS HELPED SEND MORE PEOPLE TO COLLEGE THAN THERE ARE PEOPLE IN COLLEGE TODAY.

A lot of people, like Vincent Frye, got where they are today because the Army helped them get there. By helping finance their college education. These people are proud to have served. Proud to have succeeded.

Today, the Army introduces the new Army College Fund. A high school graduate can join it, upon qualifying, when he or she joins the Army.

For every dollar they put in, Uncle Sam puts in five. Or more. So, after just two years in the Army, they can have up to $15,200 for college. In three years, up to $20,100.

Call this toll-free number for your free copy of the Army College Fund booklet. In California, call 800-252-0011. Alaska and Hawaii, 800-423-2244.

This could be the most important book a high school student ever reads.

Love To Me Is

The mutual vitality of total understanding if not instantly, than the ability to express the necessities of attaining it.

The desire to console in each other, beyond the time of personal need but to care enough to bring out the hidden griefs the other might be keeping to themselves, as to not break your tranquility.

Respecting the Individuality of each other as self, each's own self character, personality, desires, withdrawals, needs unrelated to one's own as each seek to find in each other Respect to give in exchange for the respect received.

Unselfishness, the Key to holding together the respect, Understanding that grant's the ability to console in each other, as you can't be selfish to no degree, if Love's in the heart and not just the air.

A Longing for the touch, that pains silently, peacefully, that nothing and no one else can satisfy, but that special someone, out of sight but never out of mind.

Honesty, trust, devotion, to sum up it all, to be able to trust in someone completely and for them in you. To be totally honest about everything that someone may inquire, but most of all, your feelings to be devoted in such that he's (she's) all I see and everything I want, his happiness is the breath of my air, my ability to understand him as he understands me, in mutual growth.

As best friends first for we have a chance to make each other happy which is life's whole plan, to communicate through touch, voice and mind. As we need each other's happiness for our own piece of mind.

To share with others the joys Love bring, and pray to God this feeling gets to every human being.

As man sings his songs from year to year the one to share with you is the one We hold dear, for the song in my heart only sings to you, and someday my Love we will make a song too.

Endless Friend

Stay by my side when I am lonely
Be concerned when I don't know reasons why
Remind me that our love is one and only
Holds my hand before she says good - bye
Stay with me 'til the end
My endless friend
When I am lost for words and don't know what to say
You show me you understand — with a kiss
You let me know in your own way "I love you" and without you I can't exist.
Make me say it again
My endless friend
Whisper in my ear all your wishes and dreams
I'll do anything for you
All my dreams reflect in your eyes so it seems
All my wishes are fulfilled when I am with you
I don't have to pretend
My endless friend
Time has planted a seed in your mind that may sometimes blossom and grow
Old times — so calm, so wild, tender and bittersweet
I will solve all the mysteries that were before me and you'll know
Our times — so new, so old, endless and complete
Our love will mend
My endless friend

We As Parents

Listen to the children, hear their cries, feel their pain, but dry their eyes.
Take a little time and share with them something they can comprehend.
Hear them out, let them shout, now find out what they're about.

Don't be afraid to travel deep with your child's mind, for a parent has an obligation that's no crime.
Love and understanding is a major key without these things we get defeat.
Set a good example in your behavior for your child.
So as they reach maturity they will make you proud.
Don't expect the world from them
All that's due to you is respect and love
I realize sometimes we as parents get tired, but don't give up only the strong survive.
So pray, listen and learn, for a good child now days is something that you earn.

The Unknown

Painted smiles over a frown
Can bring the best of men down
Cloudy days ahead
When they can be clear instead
Troubles within the soul
Waiting for a chance to be told
To a listening friend
The feel to be wanted
To be respected and loved by all
Makes a grown man feel
Like a little small child
Who cries out for love
And is rejected
By an unknown
The unknown object
Is man himself

Jazz Lady

Jazz Lady play on in my heart
Your sweet symphonies of love
Like Basie and Mozart

Blues babe you beat in my mind
Notes of strength and beauty
Bethoven could not define

Sweet sister of soul you shout to my eyes
Stirring accolades of night passion
Till the melody of sunrise

Classic angel orchestrate my soul
Your arrangements are such rare form
Your audience is never left cold
Jazz lady play with me
Till sun sets on our rhythm
Make music with me

Play on, Lady Jazz

My Ancestors

The pain and despair showed deep in your eyes
Only you knew of the misery and out - cries
You have witness your man being hung under the sun
You have been brutally separated from you little ones
So after 400 years of hard work, pain, blood and tears
While building a Nation that guarantee your descendants doubt and fears
In view of all the terrible things your enemy has done
Deep inside you knew that you were the chosen one
Chosen by the Creator himself, to show the World how living is done
Chosen to be the strongest and the best
But he gave you no sign of when your pain will come to rest
So as your spirit visits us everyday in many, many ways
I am sure you have noticed that we are still slaves
So now the rulership of a Dominion is about to end
Rest assure that our new World will begin
Without any enemies to hate us because we are Blacks
His time is up, for love of man is the one thing he lacks
His plan of Genocide has failed him again and again
He is a enemy of God (Good) therefore he can't be our friend
You left your strength and determination to carry on
And surely that is the basis of why we are so strong
Thank you for making life your priority at that time
As I have made living a definite goal of mine

Soul Serene

Resting now my soul serene in secret contemplation dreams of greater heights where wind is pure and thoughts of peace may endure. A place where hate has been erased and by the joys of love replaced.

Where mountains rise to meet the sky, a kingdom there for you and I. A place beyond the foaming tides where all the good in us abides.

Far beyond expanding seas. A valley rich with melodies.
In thought we all must first aspire to reach the things that we desire.
