Spotlight on Gemini
May 21 - June 20

Birthday greetings to the twins of the zodiac, Gemini. In the twelve mysteries of love, you are without a doubt, "the child," the "I think." You are the teacher of love, being totally aware and feeling.

There are two sides to your character that must be in harmony before you can successfully relate to others. One side of you is very insecure and needs the security of those things which you are use to. The other side is very curious about those forbidden fruits or intangible things you can't have.

As twins, you have such positive qualities that many people just love being around you. You are so versatile, witty, extremely perceptive and naturally flexible, people gravitude toward you. On the other side, there is restlessness, shallowness, double - talk, unreliableness and deception which are turn - offs. Don't let any of this worry that brain of yours Gemini, '82 is your year to prove yourself.

Fortunately, Gemini is ruled by the planet of the mind, Mercury which explains that creativity you have. Most Geminians are extremely good at math and language, just ask your former teachers. Your mind has been compared to a computer that retains everything.

By June and July your Mercury will be in Gemini so prepare yourself. Ideas will be flowing smoothly and hopefully you will put them into good use. With the New Moon of June 21st, this will be a time for you to put "your stamp" on those things that you are doing and people will notice.

Some people are born under lucky stars and you are no exception. Your health is at the top of the charts this year. With plenty of fresh air and sunshine, maintaining regular hours, watching the diet and above all, getting plenty of sleep, you will surely receive a clean bill of health from the doctor.

For those Geminians who are parents, this year will have its faults. Listen to your children, take time for them and you will see your children's problems disappear. But later on during the year, your children will be a source of concern, listen to them. With your mate working with you, you will be able to help your children. Children mean a lot to you and their happiness is very important. Remember they are an extension of you.

Love is in the air and so are wedding bells. Around the second possibly third week of June, if single, you might take the plunge. The time is right but don't let both feet leave the ground. A Libra will make your life enchanting.

Remember Libra has the ability to talk with you not around you. Listen to Libra and the ideas stored in that magnificent mind. Be careful Gemini that you don't idolize or go overboard with your heart. Marriage is a good move for you, but don't be foolish.
