You have the one quality that so many signs would love to have, patience. This is the essential force behind your sign and your ruler, the Moon. Having the "patience of Job" is what attracts many people to you.

With the crab as your sign, you have a tendency to seize an object with the intentions of keeping it. If the possibility arises that the object will be seized by someone or something else, you would rather lose your "claw" than let go. It is known that the "claw" has been lost but another usually grows and continues the hold on the object. Many Cancerians' hate to lose their possessions (whether animate or inaminate). This is that negative possessive trait you have.

The Cancer has those positive traits that are typical of the "master - mistress" of many moods. There are times when you are sympathetic, tender, devoted, caring, hospitable, considerate, extremely imaginative and receptive of others needs. Yet, you can be extremely defensive, fearful, smothering, irritable, emotional and pessimistic. But bear in mind that your past and future are extremely important. Therefore everything must move according to your plans and not the way others want.

With the Moon as your ruler, it governs your personality. You fluctuate on the level of a pendant swinging. As the moon changes, so do you. Where your moon is positioned, this influences other people's opinion of you.

1982 presents a change of scene for you in love, marriage and home life. Cancer can be impulsive and a change of residence or alterations to your present quarters can be expected. No matter what, this will be a lot of hard work and the pressure will be great.

If you are single, this year will bring you romance and possibly marriage. Pisces, Scorpio and Taurus natives will fill your life with the bliss and esctasy you crave. July is a great month for walking down the aisle. A good day would be the 21st. After all, the New Moon on the 20th gives the "go" sign to the "new" you.

This year is also great for the married Cancer. You will enjoy greater rewards as well as harmony. Who knows, you might increase your family size. By December the strength of your marriage will succeed all boundaries.
