Live gospel recording session Nov. 6 at Wayland Baptist Church

AFRO Photo by Lorenzo Long

GOSPEL SINGERS — Mrs. Katie Jackson (L) and Mrs. Julia Price Williams, will be recording their first gospel albums on Saturday, Nov. 6, 7:30 p.m. at Wayland Baptist Church, 3200 Garrison Blvd. The live gospel recording session is open to the public.

Mrs. Julia Price Williams and Mrs. Katie Jackson, well known local gospel singers will be recording their first album on Saturday, Nov. 6, 7:30 p.m. at Wayland Baptist Church, 3200 Garrison Blvd. The Rev. Darneal Johnson is pastor.

Mrs. Williams has been singing since she was 4-years- old. Speaking of recording her first album, she said, "I am really excited. Today, gospel music can be heard everywhere. It is here to stay and there is a great demand for gospel because of the problems we are having in our lives today."

Mrs. Williams is the wife of the Rev. Felton Williams, pastor of Second Baptist Church and the daughter of the late Rev. Julian Price, founder and former pastor of Second Baptist Church.

She recently received an award as Baltimore's Best gospel singer. The mother of seven children, Mrs. Williams has participated in the James Cleveland Gospel workshop and was a soloist at the National Baptist Convention. She is also the choir director at Second Baptist Church.

Douglas Miller, nationally known gospel singer who recently recorded his new album "The Joy Of The Lord Is My Strength," will be special guest at the live recording on Saturday.

Mrs. Katie Jackson, an active member of the House of God Church, where the Rev. James W. Jenkins is pastor will also be recording an album on Saturday at Wayland Baptist.

The live gospel recording is being done by Pearl Record Company.

Mrs. Jackson received an honorary doctorate's degree in sacred music from Baltimore College of the Bible.

She has been singing since she was 9, when she started taking piano lessons in Columbus, Ga. For three years, she was the gospel emcee of a gospel radio show in Columbus, Ga.

Her powerful voice has touched the hearts of young and old. Mrs. Jackson has participated in fund raising activities for the Kidney Foundation, Cancer Fund and Sickle Cell.

She said, "I am a Christian and enjoy singing for the Lord. When I am sad, he cheers me and when I am loney, he comforts me. I will continue to sing to encourage others to accept Christ in their lives."

The Rev. Harold G. Nixon

The Rev. Harold G. Nixon who organized the New Life Presbyterian Church in Turner Station, recently published a book on his work as a full time resident chaplain in one of the nation's largest institutions for delinquent girls, in Hudson, New York.

The book is titled "The Chaplain" It is an exact record of seven years day to day work explaining the role of the chaplain, chapel services, religious education and training activities, instructional programs, the use of volunteers, music and psychiatric counseling with residents as well as parents and institutional staff.

Working closely with Catholic and Hebrew chaplains, Rev. Nixon explains his involvement with the extensive after care programs located throughout New York, engaging a vast network of special workers, judges, clubs, organizations and interested citizens, covering a span of 20 years involving approximately 6,000 court committed young people.

The book includes two earlier publications by Rev. Nixon, Know your Bible, a comprehensive guide book for church leaders and Bible teachers, and a pamphlet entitled: Christ, the World's Blood Donor.

Also included is an anthology of religious literature.

Prior to his return to Baltimore after his retirement, Rev. Nixon received the Celtic Cross awarded at the Siver Bay conference of the Presbytery of Albany for more than 25 years of outstanding service to the Presbyterian church and the communities of New York.

Since his return to Baltimore, he lectures, pursues his interest in writing and volunteers his expertise in grapho analysis to clubs, organizations and a variety of investigative agencies. He is married to Sanoma DeBeal Nixon, professor emeritus, State University of New York.

Pays special tribute to the memory of Our Ninth Pastor — the late DR. SIMON WILLIAMSON

REV. SIMON WILLIAMSON

Who passed away November 7, 1954

It is not death to die-
To leave this weary road,
And, 'midst the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God.
It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed with tears,
And wake in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.
It is not death to bear
The wrench that sets us free
From dungeon chain, to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.
It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise on strong exulting wing
To live among the just.
Jesus, Thou Prince of Life,
Thy chosen cannot die;
Like Thee, they conquer in the strife,
To reign with Thee on high.
