Chi election

Did the white media people help create the racist attitude which prevailed in the Tuesday Chicago mayoralty election?

Many observers believe they did.

Right here in our hometown of Baltimore, after the primary, daily papers headlined — "Black Nominated in Chicago." Remember?

It was hard to tell whether they were talking about black cattle, or people.

Now the same Baltimore daily — on Wednesday — after Harold Washington, black, defeated Bernie Epton, white, this same newspaper does not proclaim, "Black wins in Chicago." Rather, it sanely reports, "Washington wins in Chicago."

Ho hum.
