Make the Weekend Work for You!

Interested in earning a college degree, but having problems arranging classes to fit your schedule? Morgan State's Weekend University features classes conveniently scheduled on weekends for working adults and others who are unable to attend weekday classes. Beginning in September, 1983, Morgan State will begin enrolling potential Bachelor of Science graduates to the Degree Weekend University in Accounting, Business Administration, Telecommunications and Social Work. Schedules have been arranged to insure that all courses needed to complete degree requirements will be available.

By taking courses offered on Friday evenings and Saturdays, students enrolled in the Weekend University can earn a degree in approximately five to six years. Financial aid is available to students in the program including loans, scholarships, grants and job opportunities. Upon enrolling and filing required financial aid information, you will automatically be considered for all categories of aid for which you qualify. Registration will be held August 31 through September 2. For more information please contact: Office of Continuing Studies, Morgan State University, 444-3155.
