FASHION DESIGNERS

Los Angeles, CA—In reading the article on "A tribute to the black Fashion Designers by Julia A. Wilson in the May 1983 issue of Dawn, I really liked the designs by Myra Everett and Lester Hayatt.

Can you help in trying to locate these designers. I would like to write to them.

KIM WELDON

One way to get in touch with the designers is through the Harlem Institute of Fashion. They are, of course, located in New York City.

CANCER OR GEMINI?

Altadena, CA—In the June issue of Dawn Magazine, there was a big error made on the horoscope page. The headline said Spotlight on Cancer, May 21-June 20.

I was born on June 7, 1923 and all these years I thought I was a Gemini.

ROBERT W. FORD

And indeed you still are a Gemini, despite the inadvertent goof.

POETRY SUBMISSIONS

Yeadon, PA—I have some poetry that I would like to see in print. I was wondering if you paid your poets, or if they had to pay you.

JAMES E. EVANS

Poetrie Gallerie is a forum for amateur poets—a place where they can see their material in print. There is no pay for poems used, nor is the poet expected to pay anything.

This is a free service of Dawn Magazine, which many budding poets have been using. All poems are carefully read, and the best ones, in the opinion of the editors, are printed.

To make submissions to the Gallerie, it requires simply that a self-addressed envelope accompany the poems submitted.

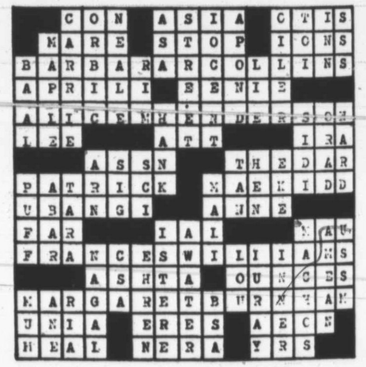
The Editor's Desk

On the cover this month, a model shows one of the new breed of swim wear coverups. Filming for this feature was done in Montego Bay, Jamaica, WI, with Dawn fashion writer Paula Brooks handling the details. All photos are by Thunder.

Next month, Dawn will feature twin beauties, both of whom are cheerleaders for a NFL football team; and one of which is the current Miss Black America.



Last month's puzzle answer.
