—Community Calendar—

FREE BLOOD PRESSURE

Baltimore County General Hospital will offer free blood pressure screenings and blood tests for sickle cell anemia, Tay-Sachs disease, thalassemia and G6PD deficiency on Wednesday, Sept. 5 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. The program will be held in meeting room 2 of the Administrative Services Building, 5401 Old Court Road.

Pre-registration is not required. For more information call 521-5968.

MUSEUM NOTES

The Baltimore Museum of Art will be closed to the public from August 18 through August 31, 1984. According to Ann Allston Boyce, Assistant Director for Administration, the closing will permit the Museum's guards to take vacations at the same time, in order that all galleries can be kept open during the other fifty weeks of the year, and allow for maintenance that cannot be accomplished when the building is in use by the public. The Museum will reopen for the fall season on Saturday, September 1 at 11 a.m.

The Museum Cafe will be open through August from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Sunday.

UNITED STATES NAVAL ACADEMY BAND TO PERFORM

The United States Naval Academy show band, "Chesapeake" will be performing at 7:00 p.m., at Bowie State College, in front of the Wiseman College Centre, Monday, August 27.

"Chesapeake" is the newest concept in music at the Naval Academy. Formed in May, 1979, the twelve member unit brings a fresh style and vigor to Navy music today.

- Under the musical direction of Musician First Class Tom Steele and direction of military Musician First Class Mike Thompson, "Chesapeake" presents a versatile and dynamic program of music. The band strives to bring the best in Navy music to each audience through a total entertainment package of vocal and instrumental music.

For further information call Dr. Carolyn Pegram at 464-3231.

WOMEN AND THE COMPUTER

Baltimore New Directions for Women, Inc. (BNDW) will present a special workshop entitled "Women and The Computer" at the Village of Cross Keys on Thursday, September 6th. The workshop begins at 5:30 PM in the Hollyday Room.

Participants will hear a basic introduction to working with computers, including a discussion on overcoming fear of computers. The workshop will last 30 - 45 minutes, with the instructor remaining afterwards to answer individual questions.

The workshop is free and open to the public. For further information, contact the BNDW Career Resource Center at 889-6677.

WORKSHOP ON TWO-CAREER FAMILIES

Baltimore New Directions for Women, Inc. (BNDW) will present a special workshop entitled "Two-Career Families" at the Village of Cross Keys on Friday, September 7th. The workshop begins at noon in the Village Square.

The workshop is free and open to the public. For further information, contact the BNDW Career Resource Center at 889-6677.

"Two-Career Families" is co-sponsored by BNDW and the Village of Cross Keys. It is part of the "Cross Keys: Your Career Key" series.

NEPTUNE YACHT CLUB

The Neptune Yacht Club, an organization of Baltimore and Washington boat owners, is seeking a queen. The queen will be selected at the Yacht Club's annual picnic which will be held at its Annapolis clubhouse on Sunday August 26.

Contestants may be between the ages of 18 and 30. A meeting for contestants will be held at Flair Studio, 1008 Mondawmin Mall on Tuesday August 21 at 6:00 p.m.

For additional information, please call 669-5365.

GARGENVILLE FOOTBALL LEAGUE, INC.

The first annual Charm City Pop Warner Youth Football Classic will be held August 31st through September 2nd at Morgan State University.

A kick-off rally, Friday August 31st at 5:00 P.M. will feature the renown Morgan State University marching band. Further game activities are scheduled for September 1st and 2nd at Morgan State University, starting 9:30 a.m. donation $2.00.

Information 433-0444 - Carmel 752-1230. (sponsored by the Gardenville Football League).

SECO

A celebration of thanks for the Goldseker Summer Jobs Program operated by the Southeast Community Organization (SECO) was held at the Sheraton-Johns Hopkins Inn on Tuesday, August 7, 1984.

This Jobs Program, made possible by a grant from the Morris Goldseker Foundation of Md., Inc., provided employment and training for 10 inner city youth between 16 and 21 for a period of six weeks ending August 3, 1984.

These youngsters were employed in stores along or near the E. Monument Street shopping corridor. Representatives from the Goldseker Foundation, SECO, and the workers were in attendance.

PARENT AIDE PROGRAM RECRUITMENT

The Social Services Administration of the State of Maryland is recruiting volunteers to assist in the Parent Aide Program. The Parent Aide Program volunteer serves to assist mothers and fathers develop better parenting skills, as well as, lend emotional support to parents who are having difficulty coping with the responsibilities of raising a family.

If you want to help a parent to overcome the wear and tear of daily living and be a friend, call (1-800) 492-0618 - in Baltimore City, call 685-0525.

ERDMAN AVE. BRIDGE CLOSED

Director of Transportation, Richard H. Trainor, today announced that the Erdman Avenue Bridge over Pulaski Highway will close at 9:30 AM on Monday, August 13, 1984 for an indefinite period of time. The closure will accelerate repairs to the bridge's deteriorated structure.

Appropriate signing and signalization will be provided to guide motorists through the detour.

GERIATRIC COURSE OFFERED

A Geriatric Assistant Course will be offered at Stella Maris, Dulaney Valley Road in Towson, from October 15-26. The state-certified course will run weekdays from 7 a.m. - 3 p.m. Cost is $100.00.

Applications will be accepted on Tuesday, September 18, from 7:00-11:00 a.m. only, in the auditorium of Stella Maris. Candidates will be interviewed at this time. Experience is helpful, but not necessary.

For more information call 252-4500 extension 205.

MINI CIRCUS CANCELS

The All American Mini Circus, which was scheduled to perform for the Little Peoples Program on Tuesday, August 28, has cancelled their performance so that they may go on a U.S.O. tour. The SAK Theatre of EPCOT Center, a nationally renowned street theatre group, will be performing tales for children on that date.

For more information about the SAK Theatre and the Little Peoples Program, call the Baltimore Office of Promotion and Tourism at 837-INFO (4636).

SCIENTISTS SEEK ASTHMA SUFFERERS

Johns Hopkins allergists are seeking study volunteers between the ages of 18 and 45 who have asthma symptoms — such as chest tightness, wheezing, and shortness of breath — especially after exercise or in the fall.

Women participants must be incapable of becoming pregnant. Participants will be paid and will receive some free medical care. If interested, send your name, address, phone number and age to: Asthma Study, The Good Samaritan Hospital, 5601 Loch Raven Boulevard, Baltimore, Md. 21239.

CHURCH HOME AND HOSPITAL

Church Home and Hospital is currently recruiting volunteers for the fall. A number of interesting and varied positions in patient and non-patient areas of the hospital and the home are available. In addition, for those interested in hospice and the bereavement programs, training will begin the end of September.

For further information, call: 522-8395.

From September 6 through September 27, sessions are scheduled every Tuesday and Friday from noon to 12:30 p.m. outside in the Village Square, on Thursday evenings from 5:30 to 6:00 p.m. in the Hollyday Room, and on Wednesday, September 19 from 5:30 to 6 p.m. On Saturday, September 22 "Your Career Key" fashion show of clothing geared to working professionals is scheduled at 12 noon in the Village Square.

All workshops last approximately thirty minutes, and deal with a different topic of interest to working persons seeking career advancement. Subjects covered range from job interviewing strategies to changing careers.

For additional information, or to pre-register for "Your Career Key", contact Susan Hastings 323-1000.

SINGLE PARENTS

Black Single Parents Without Partners will have its monthly membership meeting at 4903 Liberty Heights Ave. across from 7-11, on Thursday, August 23rd from 7:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.

For more information call the Single Parent Hotline at 466-5554.

KIDNEY FOUNDATION CAMP

The familiar KF will take on a new meaning on the weekend of August 24 thru 26 when the National Kidney Foundation-Maryland sponsors its first Kids Having Fun overnite mini-camp for pediatric renal patients living in Maryland and its surrounding areas. Camp KF will give these children the opportunity to have an independent, fun-filled weekend and to enjoy the same activities offered to boys and girls at any summer camp.

For more information on Camp KF, or to contribute to the Camp KF Scholarship Fund, contact the National Kidney Foundation-Maryland, 2336 N. Charles Street, Baltimore, MD 21218, or call 235-2536.

THE OPEN DOOR

THE OPEN DOOR, a licensed before and after school child care program, is coming to ELMWOOD Elementary School in Baltimore County, and is now accepting September registrations. THE OPEN DOOR offers Grades K-5 a recreational program geared to the whole child's development.

Starts September 4. Open 7 a.m.-6p.m. Monday through Friday. Open most school holidays when schools are delayed by inclement weather.

For more information, call 665-9621.

IN HOME AIDES AVAILABLE TO ASSIST BALTIMORE FAMILIES

Family and Children's Society, in cooperation with the State Office on Aging, Senior Aides Program, has recently graduated Seniors trained to give home care. Senior In-Home Aides may provide daily care for the elderly, companionship for the homebound, or assistance to the disabled. Aides may also provide temporary help to families needing assistance with cleaning, food preparation, or personal care during recovery from an illness or operation.

Home Aides are qualified paraprofessionals in home management and are graduated from an approved program of the Maryland State Office on Aging and the U.S. Department of Labor. All Aides have 60 hours of classroom instruction and 80 hours of actual job experience preparing them for work in private homes.

Fees for service are negotiated between the employer and the Homemaker.

For more information, please call Mrs. Selma Jackson at 669—9000 weekdays between 9 A.M. and 1 P.M.

RIGHT TO DIE

When can an individual determine the length of time that extraordinary life extending techniques will not be used to extend his or her life? In Maryland, no one knows! Delegate Dennis C. McCoy is trying to correct this inadequacy in the law with his "Right to Die" legislation.

The first of several meetings to discuss the proposed legislation will be held on Tuesday, August 21st at 7:30 p.m., at the Waxter Center for Senior Citizens, 861 Park Avenue, in Baltimore. Anyone interested in this issue is encouraged to attend, or for further information may contact Delegate McCoy's office in Baltimore at 485-2112.

LIFELINE CEREMONY

The Maryland Catholic Health Care Consortium Cordially Invites You to Attend the "LIFELINE" Ribbon Cutting Ceremony and Press Conference on Tuesday, August 21, 1984 at 10:00 a.m. in the Alagia Auditorium at St. Agnes Hospital 900 Caton Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland.

LAWN AND LANDSCAPE CLASSES

Attend a free series of classes on lawn preparation and improving your landscape. Also included will be selecting trees and shrubs for your yard. These classes are open to all citizens without regard to race, color, sex, handicap, religion, age or national origin.

Class I will be on lawns, Class II shrub and tree selection and Class III will be on landscaping.

All classes will be held from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Classes will be held at the South County Library, Churchton Road, Deale, on August 27, September 11 and September 20. Broadneck Branch Library, 1275 Green Holly Drive, Annapolis, on August 28, September 4, and September 17. North County Library, 1010 Eastway, Glen Burnie, on August 29, September 5 and September 10.

For further information, contact the Cooperative Extension Service at 767-6757.

Area Obituaries

Charles D. Mack, Sr.

Services for Charles Daniel Mack, Sr. were held Aug. 9 at Monumental Lodge No. 3 Auditorium. Interment was in King Memorial Park. Born April 21, 1901 to the late Charles and Clemmie Mack in Baltimore, he attended Baltimore's public schools and the Shiloh Baptist Church. A cement contractor by trade he was a member of Monumental Lodge No.3 Elks and the Arch Social Club. He is survived by his son, Charles D. Mack, III; two brothers, William and David; and other relatives.

Charles B. Robinson

Charles Bernard Robinson died Aug. 6 at University Hospital. Services were held Aug. 10 at Central Baptist Church. Interment was in Cedar Hill Cemetery. He was born in Baltimore on June 24, 1937 and was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Patricia Robinson; his mother, Mrs. Leah Johnson; two sons, three daughters, two brothers, a sister, and a host of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Bernice Stewart

Services for Mrs. Bernice Stewart were held Aug. 9 at St. Paul Baptist Church. Interment was in St. Thomas' Memorial Park. Born in Turner Station, Maryland on July 15, 1926, she was educated in the public schools of Turner Station and Baltimore City. She worked for many years at the Baltimore City Hospitals as a supervisor in the laundry. She retired in 1981 and was a member of St. Paul Baptist Church.

She is survived by her husband, Vernon Stewart; her eight children, Dora, Roberta, Bernice, Gloria, Bernadette, Vernon Jr., Ralph and Lester; 25 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The Black Press Must Survive

The AFRO needs your help

Your subscription makes survival possible

4 WAYS YOU CAN HELP

- Start your subscription
- Renew your present subscription
- Give a subscription to a friend
- Give a subscription to a senior citizen

The division of Social Work Services supplies the AFRO with a list of eligible senior citizens.

I believe the Black Press must survive

I'll help

☐ Start my new subscription
☐ Renew or extend my present subscription
☐ Send a subscription to a friend
☐ Send a subscription to a senior citizen
We'll supply the name

One Year Special Rate $18 per edition
Select Edition
☐ Tuesday ☐ Friday ☐ Both

Name_____
Address_____
City_____ State_____ Zip_____
Phone Number_____
Enclosed $_____ Visa or Master Charge #_____
Expiration date_____
Please list your name and address if subscription is sent to a friend.
Name_____
Address_____
City_____ State_____ Zip_____

Send to - AFRO-AMERICAN Newspaper
P.O. Box 1857
Baltimore, Maryland 21203

Remember
The Black Press Can Survive With Your Help

Friday Plus

THE WEEKLY ENTERTAINMENT/ LEISURE TIME GUIDE FOR THE BALTIMORE AND WASHINGTON AFRO-AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS

August 17, 1984

Vol. 2, No. 44

Tina Turner
Sat., Aug. 18
8 p.m.
Washington, D.C.
Convention Center

THE TUDE: A complete television listing for Baltimore and Washington