YEAR OF MARYLAND HISTORY

Nineteen eighty-four, the 350th anniversary of Maryland, is the year to learn more about the state's history. The Education Department of the Maryland Historical Society welcomes tour guides who are interested in learning about the rich heritage of Maryland as seen through the paintings, furniture, period rooms and manuscripts of the Maryland Historical Society.

A training program will begin on September 11th at the museum, during which curators, historians and museum personnel will address the volunteers. Tour guides are expected to give one tour per week to the school groups who visit the museum.

The only requisites are an interest in history and antiques and a willingness to work with children. For more information, call the Education Department, 685-3750, ext. 34.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY SLIDE TALKS

The Speakers Bureau of the Museum and Library of Maryland History is beginning its fifth season of lectures on September 3. A number of slide talks are available to groups or organizations on varied aspects of Maryland History as revealed through the Museum and Library's extensive collections.

Some of the slide talks include: Colonial Maryland, Decorative Arts, Treasures of the Maryland Historical Society, History of The Chesapeake Bay, Maryland in the 1800's....and more!

These lectures will be given at your organization's regular meeting place. Groups of 30 are requested.

To obtain a schedule, write to Speakers Bureau, Maryland Historical Society, or call 685-3750, ext. 61.

MARCH OF DIMES GOURMET GALA

Some of Maryland's elite will demonstrate their culinary skills at the March of Dimes Gourmet Gala on Saturday, October 20th with fabulous food, beautiful people and a great cause - the prevention of birth defects. The Roundhouse at the B&O Railroad Museum is the setting for this spectacular event and participating cooks are well-known figures from the media, politics, sports and business.

These celebrity chefs will prepare one of their favorite dishes at a special cooking station especially designed for them by the American Society of Interior Designers (Maryland Chapter), while guests mingle exchanging recipes and cooking tips. The dishes are judged by a panel of local and national food experts and will be duplicated by Gourmet Caterers in an extraordinary buffet.

Lionel Braun, president of Great Vintners, will be the celebrity bartender and music will be provided by the Meyer Davis Orchestra.

Tickets are one hundred dollars each or one thousand dollars for a table of ten.

For more information on the gala, phone the March of Dimes office at 752-7990.

NEW WING-COMPUTER CENTER OPENED

St. Paul's School for Girls announces the opening of its new Middle School Wing. Included in this newly constructed 5,580 square foot addition is the Middle School Computer Center, named in honor of the school's first headmistress, Mrs. Wilson K. Levering.

The Computer Science Program was established as one of the first in the area in independent schools in 1967. Now with the establishment of two computer centers, one for the Upper School and one for the Middle School, the ratio is 1 computer for each student during all instructional classes. The school teaches computer skills to all its students beginning in the fifth grade.

For further information regarding its academic programs or admission to the school, please contact Mrs. William Conklin, director of Admissions at 823-6323.

IMMUNIZATION CLINICS SCHEDULED

Baltimore City Health Department has scheduled free immunization clinics for September at Eastern Health District, 620 N. Caroline St. on September 25; Southern Health District, 1211 Wall St. on September 5; Washington Village Community Medical Center, 700 Washington Blvd. on September 13; and Druid Health District, 620 N. Caroline St. on September 10 and 17. The hours are noon to 3 p.m. and appointments are not necessary.

Parents with children enrolling in school are urged to check their children's immunization records. By six years of age, children are required to have the final DTP (diphtheria, tetanus, and pertussis) and polio vaccines for full protection under state law. Children not in compliance cannot attend school after October 11, until they bring proof of receiving required vaccinations.

For information, call 396-4454.

CCB SPONSORS ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTITUTE

The Community College of Baltimore's English Language Institute is designed to help non-native speakers of English develop and improve their English language skills. Day and evening classes will begin Tuesday, September 4 at CCB's Harbor Campus, Lombard Street at Market Place, and the Liberty Campus, 2901 Liberty Heights Ave.

Courses include Conversation & Comprehension, English Grammar, Reading & Vocabulary, and Composition. All are taught at the beginning, intermediate, and advanced levels and each class meets for a total of 45 instructional hours. Students are encouraged to register for all four classes, but may enroll in individual courses.

For further information about CCB's English Language Institute and other programs offered through the College's Center for English as a Second Language, call 396-1852.

NAACP BENEFIT

Ms. Catherine Milner will host a pool-side buffet benefit at her Curley Oaks estate in Hughesville, Maryland on Sunday, September 9, at 3 p.m. Entertainment will consist of a double set of tennis played by four of Washington's finest tennis players and Kern Mendez (of the fun bunch) will direct an aerobic fitness workout.

Guests are asked to dress casual so they can enjoy and participate in the fun games and swimming. Subscriptions are $20.00.

For further information call Washington, 396-0900 or Curley Oaks (301) 274-3069.

NATIONAL SCOUT JAMBOREE

Boy Scouts around the nation are gearing up to celebrate the Boy Scouts of America's 75th Anniversary at the National Scout Jamboree in July of 1985. The Jamboree will be held at Fort A.P. Hill, near Fredericksburg, Va., so many scouts in the Baltimore Area will be able to participate in or visit this exciting birthday celebration.

To spread the word and generate enthusiasm about this event, the Baltimore Area Scout Council is sponsoring a Jamboree Rally at the Social Security Auditorium in Woodlawn on Sunday, September 16th from 9:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Boys who have already signed up for the Jamboree will be there, and parents, friends, and anyone interested in learning more about the Jamboree are invited.

For more information about the Jamboree or Scouting, call 338-1700.

SECOND CHANCE SHOP

Beginning Monday, September 10th, the Second Chance Shop, a thrift shop sponsored by the Women's Guild of the Annunciation Cathedral, will be open Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. The shop, which is located at the Greek Orthodox Annunciation Cathedral on Maryland Avenue and Preston Sts., will feature a choice selection of clothing and household items at reasonable prices. Also included are designer fashions and collectibles.

Special feature of opening week will be a very special sale of all remaining summer merchandise at low, low prices.

This fall marks the Second Chance Shop's fifth season of participating in the various Cathedral-Community related events which include the annual Inner Harbor Showcase of Nations Festivals and the Athenian Agora, the Greek bazaar held in the cathedral complex.

SPEED READING AT AACC

Professionals can gain an edge through a new speed reading course, offered for credit at Anne Arundel Community College for the first time this Fall semester in successive five-week sessions.

Techniques in previewing and skimming professional journals and reports, and in locating key information in reading materials, as well as improving reading rate are practiced. "Speed Reading for professionals" is designed to enhance reading skills and comprehension as reading rates are increased.

The course is offered on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12:30 to 1:45 p.m., and on Mondays and Wednesdays from 7 to 8:15 p.m. For more information on this one-credit course, or others offered at AACC, call 269-7246.

SCHOLARSHIP AID OFFERED BY NOTRE DAME

The College of Notre Dame of Maryland is now accepting applications for the Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation Scholarship for mature second-career women. Women 25 years of age and older with at least two years of college who are or will be enrolled at least part-time at Notre Dame are eligible for this need-based scholarship.

Deadline for applying for the grant to be used in the spring semester is October 1. For further information, contact Edie Donohue, director of continuing education at Notre Dame, 435-0100, ext. 297.

PETS ON WHEELS

Pets on Wheels, a program of the Baltimore City Commission on Aging, is looking for pet owners and their pets willing to visit lonely and withdrawn nursing home residents. Our next pet observation class will be held on Wednesday, September 19 at 6:30 p.m. at the Maryland S.P.C.A. - 3300 Falls Rd. For more information call 396-1762.

AGING VOLUNTEER NEEDED

The Baltimore City Commission on Aging and Retirement Education is seeking volunteers to register with the Skillsbank for the Elderly, a new concept in volunteering. Opportunities are available on short-term or long-term commitment. Share your skills and talents at your convenience when needed in your community. For information call 396-1762.

LIFE SUPPORT VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

The Baltimore City Commission on Aging and Retirement Education "Life Support Program," funded by the Maryland State Office on Aging, is in the process of recruiting volunteers from the community to visit nursing home residents in Baltimore City.

Each volunteer will be required to complete a two-hour training course prior to being placed at a nursing home. Upon completion of the training course volunteers will be matched with nursing home residents who have similar interests as the volunteer.

During visits with nursing home residents, volunteers read, write letters, participate in recreational activities, take residents on trips out of the home, when feasible or just visit. But, most importantly, volunteers let nursing home residents know that somebody "cares."

The next life support program volunteer training session is scheduled for September 18, 1984. To register or to obtain more information contact the life support program at 396-1762. Office hours are 8:30 to 4:30 weekdays.
