Winning letters

I think my mother deserves this honor because she is a very smart and intelligent woman, and if it wasn't for her I wouldn't be in this world now. I am seven years old, and my mother was the one who got me interested in church. I love going to church, reading the Bible, listening to gospel music, and singing gospel songs too.

She deserves to be honored not only because she taught me right, but teaching my twin sister was well as my five brothers and other seven sisters.

My mother is very faithful, she just celebrated her 29th wedding anniversary. We all have the same father and my mother loves us all by treating everyone equally. I thank God for giving me such a darling loving mother, and I want to be just like her. I would be proud if she was honored because she devotes her time to her children, grandchildren, and husbnd. I just pray she wins.

Benita Bazemore

I believe my mother deserves this honor because without her honesty with me about how life really is in society, and her determination and strength to raise all seven of her children to finish high school, believe in ourselves, become independent, and obtain good jobs, I would not be the woman that I am today.

We were a poor family raised in Jarrettsville, Maryland. My dad worked long hard hours, but he provided the best that he could in thoe days. We had no running water or bathroom. My mom fed and dressed us each morning for school, and some how she found a way to prepare a meal for us at dinner. My mom chopped wood, fetched water, and had a big round tub for us to bathe in. She did this for 16 years of my life. She also gave birth by herself twice.

In 1972, we moved to the city. Mom said we needed a better house to live in. Time got better and mom would still saylife is alot different when you get out there on your own. It is.

Now I am a single parent with two sons and a pretty good job, my mom hs still provided whenever I need. If we need food, she provides; if my son needs shoes, she provides. Anything she can do for me she will do. And she was right, life is alot different and hard when you are out on your own.

She came from a poor family. I came from a poor family, but mom made me the woman I am today, strong and determined to go on.

SMITH - A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our dear mother, MAGGIE SMITH, who passed away January 2, 1985:
Somewhere above this troubled world
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our mother rests in heavenly peace—
God grant some day we'll meet her there
Daughter, LILLIE M. THOMAS and LOUISE HAWKINS

STOKES - A Mother's Day Tribute of love in memory of our dear mother, HELEN STOKES who passed away May 7, 1975.
Today is Mother's Day, dear mother,
A present we always did give
But God has taken you far away
In a much better place to live.
You were such a wonderful mother,
So kind, unselfish and true.
Our proudest possession, dear mother,
Was no one - other than you.
Loving Children,
VIRGINIA, ROBERT, DONALD, FRANCES, MARY, CHARLENE, JUANITA, LAVERNE

VAUGHN - A Mother's Day Tribute in loving memory of our loved one, GERTRUDE E. VAUGHN, who passed away January 17, 1968
God made lots of beautiful things:
Sunset and roses, and trees,
Birds, and starlight and loyal friends.
And, after he made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare.
More loving and more true.
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare.
A mother as dear as you.
Love, SHEILA, MR. DORIS and TRICIA

WIGGINS - A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our dear mother and grandmother, SUSIE P. WIGGINS, who passed away September 6, 1970
A tribute of everlasting love
For all that you have done.
We know that God has given you
The rest that you have won.
Daughter, VIVIAN
