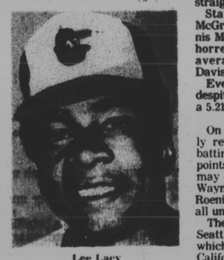
Lacy returns to Birds, but pitching takes leave

The long-awaited return of Lee Lacy to the Baltimore lineup took place Monday night against the Kansas City Royals.

But, conversely, the arrival of Lacy signalled the departure of virtually everything else the Orioles were counting on: pitching, hitting and defense.

As a result, the last of the three free agents signed by the Birds last winter had yet to play in a winning game as of Thursday morning.

This, of course, is no fault of Lee's. He made a flashy comeback, banging a double in his first appearance, a blow that barely missed clearing the left-field wall in Memorial Stadium.



Lee Lacy flashy comeback, but

Then on Tuesday, installed at leadoff, Lacy drew a walk, stole second, advanced to third on an infield out and scored on a dash to beat a throw after a short fly to right.

In summary, though, Lacy's first three games produced only one hit (the double) and a pungy .091 batting average.

But, it was the overall Bird collapse that led to a string of four straight losses.

Starting pitchers Scott McGregor, Storm Davis and Dennis Martinez were bobbled with horrendous earned-run averages: McGregor, 7.92; Davis, 5.94, and Martinez, 5.70.

Even ace reliever Don Orase, despite a 4-1 record, was posting a 5.21 ERA.

* * *

On the offense side, the usually reliable Eddie Murray was batting only .238, two percentage points better than April — hot, may — cool Rick Dempsey. And Wayne Gross, Mike Young, Gary Roenicke and Rich Dauer were all und. .225.

The O's open a 3-game stint at Seattle tonight (Friday), after which they visit Oakland and California before returning home May 29 with the Mariners.

Trainer Hank Allen has Sparrowvon in Preakness, Wayne Barnett riding

Blacks and Preakness weekend

Gordy filly out, Hank Allen colt in

By Sam Lacy

Local racing aficianados may be slightly disappointed as the Preakness weekend progresses. There had been expectancy that black participation would be seen for the first time ever in the Black-eyed Susan Stakes today (Friday) and for the first time in 87 years in tomorrow's (Saturday) Preakness.

They will have to settle for half. Motown founder Barry Gordy has decided against shipping his brilliant 3-year-old filly, Rascal Lass, in for the "Susan."

It came as somewhat of a surprise to the Pimlico people, since Gordy had indicated she would run here. Her third place finish in the Kentucky Oaks (sister race to the Derby) two weeks ago may have caused the change in plans.

* * *

A third place finish in last Saturday's Preakness Prep, however, did not dissuade Hank Allen and the owners of Sparrowvon from their thought of shooting for the Preakness.

* * *

Sparrowvon will go to the post Saturday against favored Chief's Crown, Eternal Prince, Tank's Prospect, etc., all remnants from the Derby field.

Wayne Barnett, who handled Sparrowvon when the colt won the E. Palmer Heagerty Stake at Bowie in late March and the Federico Tesio Stake at Pimlico, April 13, is Allen's contract rider.

Barnett, though slow to do so, apparently has won the respect of a growing number of trainers.

On Wednesday, he had seven mounts, the busiest day he has ever had in Maryland. Of the seven, he had a 8/6 winner and two seconds, one at 11 to 1, the other at 7 to 1.

Thompson, no; Bickerstaff?

It may be that the Seattle SuperSonics will follow one black head coach with another, but it won't be John Thompson.

Lenny Wilkens, who was relieved of his floor duties at the end of the Sonics' NBA season and was named general manager, interviewed Thompson and Bernie Bickerstaff as possible choices for the Seattle job.

Thompson, however, said he was not interested in the position and probably would remain at Georgetown, although he did not rule out the idea of a pro job in the future. He made it clear that his main objection to an NBA assignment was the fact that he would not have full control of the program.

Bickerstaff has been assistant coach of the Washington Bullets for over 10 years, and is deemed by many to be ready for a head coaching post.

Wilkens was noncommittal about the likelihood of teaming with Bernie.

MEMORIAL DAY MAY 30TH

The Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN on Friday, May 31st, will help you proudly honor the memory of your loved one(s) with a special 'Memorial Day Page.' You may place your own personal message or choose one of the lovely verses below at only 20 cents per word plus $5.50 extra for picture (black & white preferred).

MEMORIAL DAY VERSES

1-MD
Now that wintry storms are over,
And spring comes fresh and fair,
We will meekly kneel beside him,
And place our flower there.
From our chain this link has fallen,
In the East the stars have set,
But engraved on memory's tablet
Is the name we shall never forget.

2-MD
What day, since all are memory-filled,
Shall be Memorial Day for you?
How can the heart tell them apart —
That wears its mourning all year through?

3-MD
Beyond the sunset he has gone,
To rest a little while,
The memory of his loving words,
The kindness of his smile.
Fell like a benediction soft,
Upon our lonely way.
And thus he lives forevermore
Throughout Memorial Day.

4-MD
Dear God, plant flowers on his grave,
For you alone know where he lies,
You alone know the life he gave,
And saw him close his weary eyes.
And, You alone, dear God above,
Know our hearts are broken.
The memory of his precious love
Is our only sacred token.

5-MD
On this Memorial Day, as every day
How I miss him I cannot say.
Though in heaven, he rests in peace
My love for him will never cease.

6-MD
On this Memorial day,
Her memory is as dear today,
As in the hour she passed away.

7-MD
The prayer we'll make this Memorial Day
Is that God will give you, too,
Still more and more of all the joys
We had, dear one because of you.

8-MD
"THINKING OF YOU"
Someone is thinking of you,
For you are with us still.
We miss you dear one, on this Memorial Day
And we know we always will.

9-MD
Memorial Day brings back memories
Of wonderful times we knew.
A family day together
For then dear, we had you.
And all these recollections
Of the happy days long gone,
Bring sadness and a heartache
As Memorial Day morning dawns.

10-MD
A Memorial Day tribute of everlasting love
For all that you have done,
We know that God has given you
The rest that you have won.

11-MD
Seven sad lonely years have passed
Since our great sorrow fell;
The shock that we received that day
We still remember well.
How his life was shed we know not;
What his last word, look or thought,
Only that he did his duty —
Died as he bravely fought.
