Mrs. Vanessa Johnson, Assistant

Rules and Regulations

PURPOSE

The purpose of this campaign is to get all residents in your block to keep a clean home this summer and beautify the block.

A clean block is one in which steps and sidewalks are washed once a day and the street kept free from trash.

Woodwork is kept free from fingerprints and vestibules are scrubbed.

Windows are kept clean and curtains hung evenly.

Garbage and trash cans are removed as soon as emptied.

Window boxes have flowers in them as well as on the porch.

No one sits at the front window or on the front steps, unless his clothing is neat and clean.

A beautiful block must have flowers in it, and must be clean, both back and front.

EXPLANATION

A block is a row of houses between two cross streets. For the purpose of this campaign, a block includes the houses on both sides of the street.

There must be three or more houses before there is a block.

JUDGES

Judges appointed by the director will choose the best block on these counts. 1. Appearance of block at time of inspection. 2. Improvment of block over what it was when contest began. 3. The beauty of the flowers.

Judges may make as many inspections as they see fit in case of delay, dispute or contest, the director's decision will be final in all cases.

PRIZES

Special certificates of merit will be given to all persons recommended by the captain.

There will be a cash prize and other gifts.

In many blocks a party is given for all those who worked.

BLOCK ORGANIZATION

1. The Captain must try to get all persons in the block to sign up and send their names to the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspaper.

2. He or she must call a meeting of all adults and children and elect a president, who will act as advisor.

3. Have a secretary, who will write down what is done at each meeting and send reports to the AFRO.

4. Elect a block inspector, who will see that no trash accumulates anywhere in the block.

5. Elect a marshal, who will call out the clean-up brigade at a definite time each day, so that by all working together at the same time, the block will soon improve in appearance.

6. Do not whitewash trees or curbs; only the back yards and fences may be whitewashed.

WINDOW SIGNS

One hundred per cent cooperation of block residents will be attested by the window signs as well as by the improved appearance of the block itself.

VICTORY REPORT MUST BE FILED

All Captains in the AFRO's Clean Block Campaign are urged to fill in The Victory Report and return it to the AFRO.

FRIDAY MORNING MEETINGS

1. The Captain must attend the Friday Morning meetins. He or she must sign the attendance sheet upon entry.

2. It is suggested that at least three from the block attend weekly meetings.

'Reading Rainbow' returns

LEVAR BURTON hosts "Reading Rain- bow" weekdays on PBS.

Summer vacation is a very special time of year for primary school children — but it is also the time of year when they lose some of their newly-acquired reading skills. "Reading Rainbow", a 20-part series, motivates young readers to make reading a permanent part of their everyday lives.

The series returns to Instructional Television's schedule this summer and airs on Maryland Public Television (MPT) TV 22, 28, 31, 36, 62 and 67 weekdays at 10:30 a.m., beginning June 17.

Hosted by LeVar Burton, each 30 minute episode features a children's picture book, and young readers provide enthusiastic book reviews of several others. "Reading Rainbow" expands the theme of the featured book in a lively magazine-style format through animation, music, dramatizations and field trips to such places as the Dinosaur National Park or the Crow Indian Reservation in Montana.

Summer Arts Camp at Walters

"Around the World in Five Days," a summer art camp, will be presented by The Walters Art Gallery July 15-19, 1985. Designed for children ages 8 through 10, the program provides a variety of activities highlighting The Walters' collection.

Each day, participants will be introduced to a particular area or set of objects through a film and a brief gallery tour. Later, they will be provided with material and instruction to create their own works of art, based on what they have seen. Persian and Spanish tiles, Byzantine and Coptic treasure boxes and Chinese scroll paintings are among the areas of special focus.

The Summer Arts Camp is divided into two sections: Morning, 9:30-12 Noon, and Afternoon, 1:30-4 p.m.

Participants are invited to bring a lunch to the patio of the Enoch Pratt Free Library, where they can listen to stories chosen to further illustrate the day's topic.

Conducted by Sedric Ware, Community Relations Supervisor at The Walters, the Summer Arts Camp is limited to 15 children per session. For further information and registration, call The Walters Art Gallery at 547-9000 ext. 237.

A CLEAN HOME, STREET, SIDEWALK, ALLEYS STARTS WITH YOU!

(Photo by Vanessa Johnson)

Mayor's Assault on Trash in Park Heights is being led by Brigadier Elva Edwards (L) and Commander, Dr. Lenwood Ivey in the Park Heights area. A massive educational program has been launched and already 163 tons of trash has been removed.

Where to get help

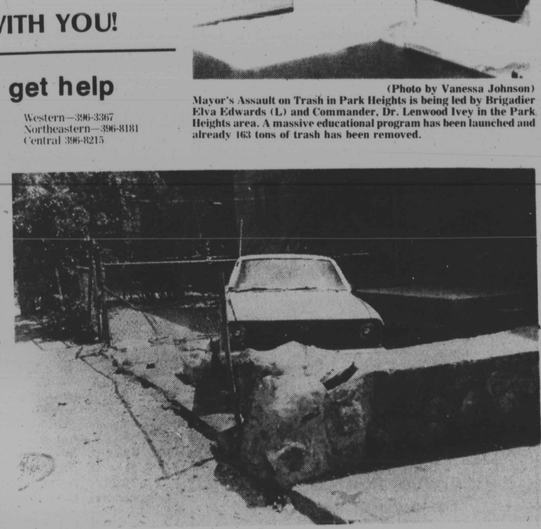

AFRO Clean Blockers are happy and to know that the Mayor's Assault On Trash is going to make difference in their neighborhoods.

Call the Parks Heights Community Center, 578-0288 for grass seeds, 25 cents a pound; trash cans, $6.50 each and trash bags and tools.

Also in Park Heights call Mayor's Office, 396-0416 or Neighborhood Progress Administration 396-7736 for help.

In other areas if you have swept your alley or cleaned up a vacant lot call the Bureau of Solid Waste:

Northwestern—396-6070
Eastern—396-8183
Western—396-3367
Northeastern—396-8181
Central 396-8215

Abandoned car in back yard in Lower Park Heights has been sighted but has yet to be removed. To get car removed from site free of charge all you have to do is call Abandoned Vehicles Division (day or night) at 396-8175.

Workshop on fundraising

Do's and don'ts of grant-writing, how to enlist the aid of local merchants, and fundraising through direct mail soliciation and membership drives are among the topics included in CPHA's next neighborhood workshop, to be held on Saturday, June 8.

The workshop, co-sponsored by the Johns Hopkins University's Office of Community Affairs, will take place in the Great Hall of the Student Union (at JHU's Homewood Campus) from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The goal of the workshop is to familiarize neighborhood leaders and interested citizens with fundraising strategies which offer alternatives to depending on shrinking public resources. It is another in a series of workshops presented by CPHA to assist neighborhoods with their self help efforts.

There is a $3.00 per person registration fee for the workshop. Pre-registration is suggested, although registration will be accepted at the door. For more information, or to pre-register, call CPHA at 539-1369.

War Memorial Plaza opening for summer

The public is invited to attend the Summer Grand Opening of War Memorial Plaza on Monday, June 3, 1985, at 12 Noon.

A variety of entertainment will be featured including a performance by the Lombard Junior High School Band. A clown and juggler will also be on hand to entertain the audience.

This event marks the beginning of free weekday entertainment, ranging from jazz bands to fashion shows. For additional information and a calendar of events, contact the Mayor's Office of Adventures in Fun at 396-4891.

MEMORIAL DAY MAY 30TH

The Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN on Friday, May 31st, will help you proudly honor the memory of your loved one(s) with a special 'Memorial Day Page.' You may place your own personal message or choose one of the lovely verses below at only 20 cents per word plus $5.50 extra for picture (black & white preferred).

MEMORIAL DAY VERSES

1-MD
Now that wintry storms are over,
And spring comes fresh and fair,
We will meekly kneel beside him,
And place our flower there.
From our chain this link has fallen,
In the East the stars have set,
But engraved on memory's tablet
Is the name we shall never forget.

2-MD
What day, since all are memory-filled,
Shall be Memorial Day for you?
How can the heart tell them apart —
That wears its mourning all year through?

3-MD
Beyond the sunset he has gone.
To rest a little while,
The memory of his loving words,
The kindness of his smile.
Fall like a benediction soft,
Upon our lonely way,
And thus he lives forevermore
Throughout Memorial Day.

4-MD
Dear God, plant flowers on his grave,
For you alone know where he lies,
You alone know the life he gave,
And sew him close his weary eyes.
And, You alone, dear God above,
Know our hearts are broken.
The memory of his precious love
Is our only sacred token.

5-MD
On this Memorial Day, as every day
How I miss him I cannot say.
Though in heaven, he rests in peace
My love for him will never cease.

6-MD
On this Memorial day.
Her memory is as dear today.
As in the hour she passed away.

7-MD
The prayer we'll make this Memorial Day
Is that God will give you, too,
Still more and more of all the joys
We had, dear one beacuase of you.

8-MD
"THINKING OF YOU"
Someone is thinking of you,
For you are with us still.
We miss you dear one, on this Memorial Day
And we know we always will.

9-MD
Memorial Day brings back memories
Of wonderful times we knew,
A family day together
For then dear, we had you.
And all these recollections
Of the happy days long gone,
Bring sadness and a heartache
As Memorial Day morning dawns.

10-MD
A Memorial Day tribute of everlasting love
For all that you have done,
We know that God has given you
The rest that you have won.

11-MD
Seven sad lonely years have passed
Since our great sorrow fell;
The shock that we received that day
We still remember well.
How his life was shed we know not;
What his last word, look or thought.
Only that he did his duty —
Died as he bravely fought.

IN MEMORIAM

ROLAND H. ROGERS, JR.
Ronnie left us, just one short month ago
But is he gone? I don't think so!
He is gone in body, but his spirit lives on
The legacy left is known by those he touched upon.
We think of him daily
talk fondly of those cherished days
Of how he strove for perfection
In his many Ronnie ways
From the grooming mannerisms
that we all teased about
To the compassion he had for all people
Even the down and out
We must never dwell on his passing
Or on all the things he will never share
Because the love he gave in life has in death strengthened and comforts even though he is not there and forget you we never will.
Rest comfortably and know that your love for us remains.
No other's shoes can fill.
With Love Forever
MARGARET 'MARGE' WHITE
