TALENTED TEENS READY TO PERFORM

The 15th annual celebration of The 'Miss Talented Teen Maryland' Pageant will be held Sunday, June 16 at 5 p.m. at the pageant's new headquarters, The Baltimore Plaza - Hotel, Pratt and Eutaw Sts.

Seventeen beautiful and talented young ladies between the age of 13 and 16 have been carefully chosen as semi - finalists to compete for the Maryland title of 'Miss Talented Teen Maryland.'

This year's winner will have an eight - day fun - filled trip to Hollywood, CA to compete on the National level for the International title from among forty - eight young ladies from various states and countries including, England, Spain and the Bahamas.

This year's pageant will feature a special celebration of the outstanding achievements of the fourteen previous State Queens. It's going to be exciting.

The young contestants have a total of twenty - two rehearsals and each rehearsal brings more excitement than the previous one.

This pageant 1985 is titled "Beauty and a Rose," the official title since its inception in 1970.

Miss Rae Ross, who is the official choreographer for the pageant is a graduate of Adelphe University, a professional dancer and singer from New York, and a superb teacher, having taught and performed in Germany for two years and with the famous Alvin Ailey Dance Center. The Harlem School for the Arts, Ruth Williams Dance Studio and State University, New York at new paltz, and many others.

She has performed with several dance companies, among many are The Chamber Dance Company, Joan Miller Dancers, Ballet Hespanies, famous Jazz Musician Noel Pointer and others throughout New York and Europe.

Miss Ross has had training with several masters of arts during her career; among those are: Mortha Grahm, The Alvin Ailey American Dance Center, Katherine Dunham, David Howard, Melissa Hayden, Nat Horne and many others.

She studied voice from The Peabody Conservatory of Music - Baltimore and from famous New York's Thurman Bailey and Ben Carter.

Some of the young contestants have never had dancing before, but one would never guess which one when the contestants dance to the choreographed piece taken from the DeBarge record, "Rhythm of the Night."

Special judges have already been selected to judge this year's pageant. They are judges who will not hold malice or be prejudice towards any of the contestants. They all must and will be treated fairly.

For ticket information regarding the pageant call 730-8689 or 466-0123.
