Community Calendar

Provident Auxiliary

The Provident Hospital Auxiliary will sponsor its Annual Luncheon and Fashion Show on Sunday, May 11 at Martin's West, 6817 Dogwood Rd. beginning at 12 noon.

Please telephone The Gift Shop (578-2035). Tickets are $20.

Arboretum Open House

Cylburn Arboretum Association and Maryland Ornithological Society are hosting an Open House on Sunday, May 25 from 2 to 4 p.m., at Cylburn Mansion 4915 Greenspring Ave.

At 2:30 p.m. Herb Harris, president of Maryland Natural History Society, will give an illustrated lecture on "Snakes of Maryland."

Volunteers will be available in the museums and library to answer questions. Admission is free.

Forum On Stadium Issue

The Citizens Planning and Housing Association (CPHA) is sponsoring a forum on Wednesday, May 21 to initiate public discussion of the proposals for a stadium, new or renovated. Henry Bu[illegible]a of the Baltimore Corporate Stadium Task Force, Frank Gallagher of the Stadium Modernization Committee, and Morton Rosen of the Maryland Special Advisory Commission on Professional Sports and the Economy will present their proposals. A question and answer session will follow the presentations by the spokesmen. Prior to the discussion, the guidelines of the Stadium Authority approved by the General Assembly this session will be outlined by the moderator.

The meeting will be held in The Forum (second floor of the Bard Building) at the Community College of Baltimore's Harbor Campus, corner of Lombard and Market Streets, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. The forum is free and open to the public. For more information, call 539-1369.

Rabies Clinic Set

A $4 rabies clinic is set for Tuesday, May 6, 6 to 9 p.m. at the Municipal Animal Shelter, 301 Stockholm St. in South Baltimore. In celebration of "Be Kind To Animals" Week, refreshments will be served to pets and owners. For details, call 396-4688.

International Festival

An International Festival is being held on Wednesday, May 14 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Waxter Center Senior Citizens, 861 Park Ave. Featured will be foods, crafts and entertainment from many different regions of the world.

The festival will commemorate Older Americans Month, National Senior Center Week, and the Waxter Center's 12th Anniversary. Senior citizens throughout the Baltimore metropolitan area will be gathering at the centrally located Waxter Center to join in the varied ethnic festivities.

The public is invited to the indoor and outdoor activities. Admission and entertainment are free. Ethnic foods and crafts will be available at a minimal cost.

Business Management Seminar

The U.S. Small Business Administration and the Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE) will conduct a one-day workshop entitled "How to Start and Manage Your Own Business" on Wednesday, May 7.

This workshop is designed for anyone thinking about starting a business or who recently did so.

This workshop will address such topics as organization, business plans, advertising, site selection, marketing and others.

To register for this workshop and get further details, call 962-2233.

Seminar on Maryland Archives

The Maryland Genealogical Society will sponsor a seminar on Maryland Archives on Saturday, May 10 from 1:30 - 4:00 p.m. at the Maryland Historical Society, 201 Monument St., Baltimore. At 2 p.m., Dr. Edward C. Papenfuse, archivist of Maryland, will speak on the New Maryland State Archives. At 3:15 p.m., Thomas C. Hollowak, acting archivist, Baltimore City, will discuss the Archives of Baltimore City. Call 377-0129 for information.

Federal Employees To be Honored

Career service employees of Federal agencies in the Baltimore/Annapolis area will be honored by the Federal Executive Board (FEB) at the 1986 awards luncheon on Friday, May 2 at Martins West.

George R. Turner, Jr., federal highway administrator is this year's chairman for the 1986 career service awards program. "We anticipate some 1,200 employees and friends to honor award winners," Turner says.

In recognition of outstanding federal civilian and military service, 157 employees have been nominated for awards in 12 categories by 37 federal agencies.

Rosalie R. Wilson, director, Office of Personnel and Training for the Federal Highway Administration, will be the guest speaker. Entertainment will be provided by the First U. S. Army Band.

Oldies But Goodies Disco

On Friday, May 9, the James McHenry Recreation Center Adult Advisory Council invites you to "Stroll Down Memory Lane" at an "Oldies But Goodies" Disco. The affair will be from 9 p.m. until. Tickets are $5 before May 2, and $4.50 after May 2.

Proceeds from this activity will help purchase trophies for our Annual Awards Affair for community support.

Consumer Course For Homebuilders

The Baltimore Development Center at Howard Community College presents a consumer relations course for Homebuilders on Tuesday and Thursday (May 27 and 29) at 7:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. in Room L140, Howard Community College.

Course topics include: positive consumer relations techniques, resources for consumer complaints and how to improve business through an effective consumer relations program. Continental breakfast will be served both mornings. For more information, call the Business Development Center at Howard Community College 992-4808.

Image: Dress To Impress

The YWCA Woman's Center will offer a workshop entitled "Image: Dress to Impress' on May 7, 1-2:30 p.m. Donna Apgar, color consultant for "Beauty for All Seasons," will demonstrate how to use your appearance to make a positive first impression. Your appearance relays messages about you even before you speak. Learn to use clothing, make-up, hairstyle, accessories, colors, styles, and even fabrics to communicate your effectiveness. The fee is $8 before April 30, and $10 after that date.

Pre-registration, pre - payment, and YWCA membership are required for participation in YWCA classes. To register or for more information, please all 268-4393. The YWCA Women's Center is located at 167 Duke of Gloucester St. in downtown Annapolis.

Story Time At Woodlawn Library

"What's For Lunch?", a story time for two years olds and adult, will be presented on May 12 at 10:30 a.m. at the Woodlawn Branch of the Baltimore County Public Library.

Free tickets are available by calling the library at 265-7766 or visiting the branch at 1811 Woodlawn Dr.

Union Memorial Auxiliary Hosts Dinner

The Union Memorial Hospital Auxiliary presents its Third Annual Chesapeake Bay Night on Friday, May 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the Union Memorial Hospital, 201 E. University Pkwy.

This auxiliary-sponsored dinner, all-you-can-eat style, will feature fried clams, steamed shrimp, crab cake, roast beef, and numerous other delicacies, all accompanied by live banjo music.

Tickets are $12 per person with the proceeds going to the Union Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. For tickets, call 554-2507.

Getting A Federal Job

The YWCA Woman's Center will offer a two-session workshop to familiarize the public with procedures for getting a federal job. The workshop will be conducted by Eileen Gibson and Leatha Price, on Wednesdays, May 14 and 21, 7:30-9:30 p.m.

The first session will deal with the federal personnel system, job titles, job grades, salary charts, benefits, testing, where to apply and steps in applying.

In the second session the participants will actually begin to fill out an SF 171, line by line and will learn successful methods for describing past experience. The fee for both sessions is $14.00 before May 1 and $16 after that date.

Pre-registration, pre-payment, and YWCA membership are required for participation in YWCA classes. To register or for more information, please call 268-4393. The YWCA Woman's Center is located at 167 Duke of Gloucester Street in downtown Annapolis.

National Nurses Day

A celebration of National Nurses Day will be held in War Memorial Plaza on Friday, May 9 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. The purpose of the celebration is twofold: 1) To give recognition to nurses, and 2) To broaden public awareness of the nursing profession.

Sponsored by the Metropolitan Nurses Day Committee, in conjunction with the Mayor's Office of Adventures in Fun, the celebration will feature informational booths displaying the various practices of nursing, and the presentations of nursing awards. Door prizes will also be awarded throughout the program.

This activity is free and open to the public. For additional information, please call the Mayor's Office of Adventures in Fun at 396-4891.

Hearing And Speech Agency Accepting Referrals

If your child is less than 24 months of age and has little or no speech, cannot express needs or is unresponsive to sounds, The Hearing and Speech Agency of Metropolitan Baltimore may be able to help.

The Agency's Parent-Infant-Toddler Program is currently accepting referrals for evaluation and consideration for treatment of hearing, language and speech disordered children.

For further inormation, please contact the Agency at 243-3800.

VIRGINIA SLIMS

SURGEON GENERAL'S WARNING: Cigarette Smoke Contains Carbon Monoxide.

Parent Support Group Picnic

The Juvenile Diabetes, Parent Support Group, will hold a Family Picnic on Sunday, May 18, 1986, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the APL Picnic Grounds of Johns Hopkins University. There will be no rain date. If the weather is questionable that morning, contact Helene Weiner at 992-7867.

For further information or reservations contact Helene Weiner before May 11, 1986 of the JDF office, 653-CARE.

Preschool Party

The Cloisters Children's Museum of Baltimore City hosts its annual spring Preschool Party on Friday, May 23, at 1. Games, refreshments, and special clowning around. Free with Museum admission. Suggested for childen 3 to 5.

The Cloisters is open Wednesday through Friday, 10 to 4:30; Saturday and Sunday, 12 to 4. Museum admission is $2.00 for adults and children. No admission fee is charged on Thursday. Call 823-2550.

St. Paul's Schools Offer Summer Programs

St. Paul's School and St. Paul's School for Girls will hold a six week summer session from June 16 to July 25. Applications are welcome from boys and girls who attend Baltimore area schools in grades 5 through 12.

Classes for "SUMMER — ST. PAUL'S" will be held in the air-conditioned building of St. Paul's School for Girls on Mondays through Fridays from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Small classes are featured in Driver Education, Typing/Word Processing, Language Arts, Math, Developmental Reading, Writing, Algebra, Geometry, Biology, French, Spanish, German, Latin and Humanities.

Call "SUMMER — ST. PAUL'S" Director Sue Gibbons at 825-4400 for further information. Application deadline, June 11.

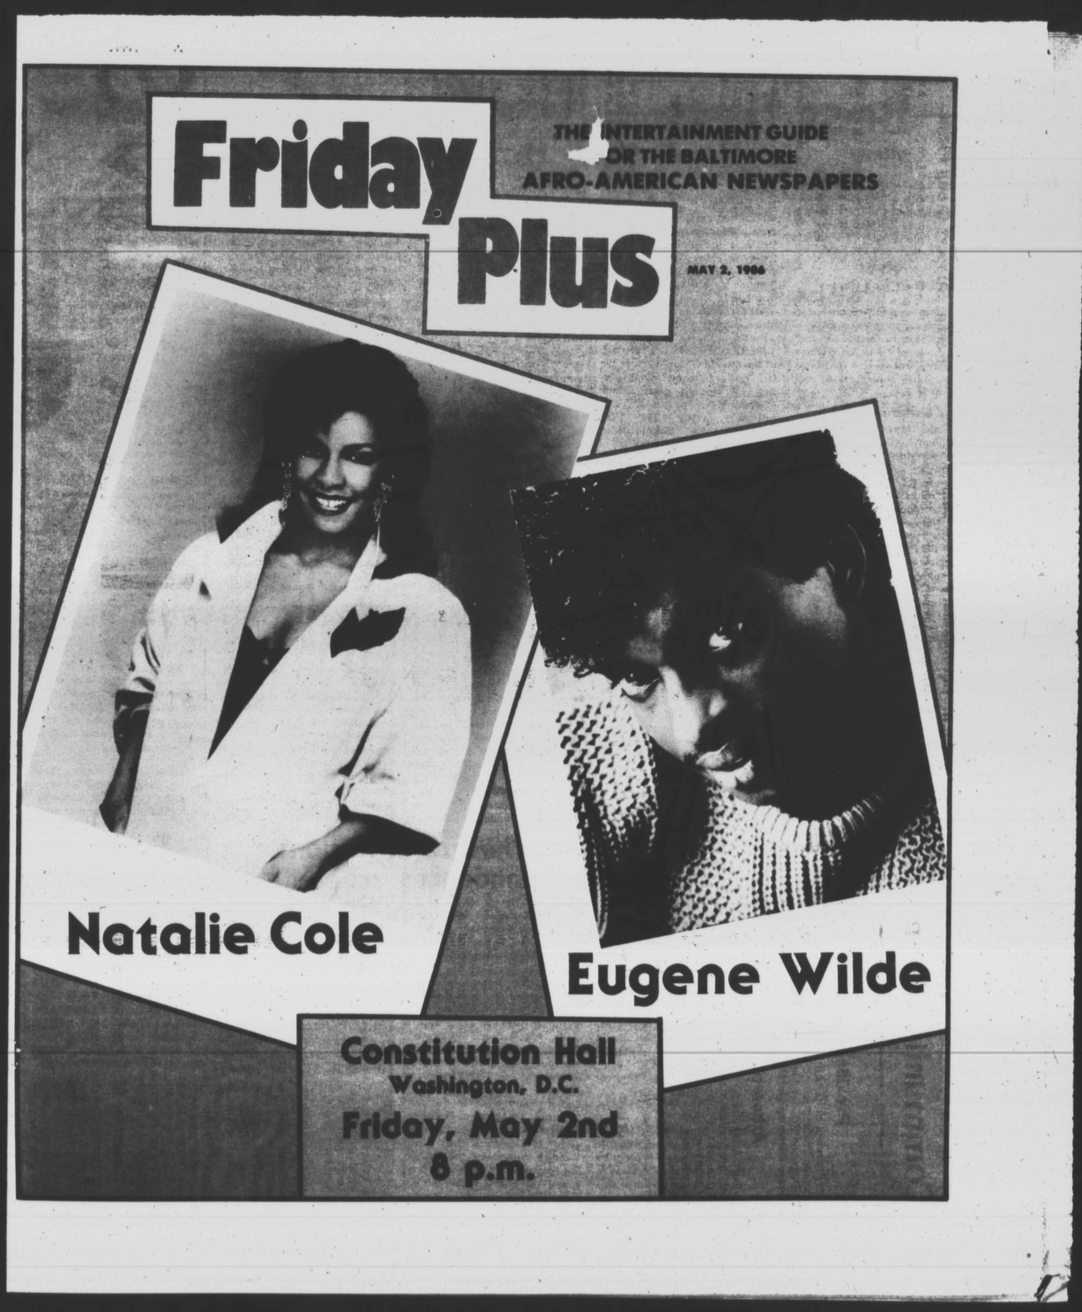
Lacrose Camp At St. Paul's

A one-week lacrosse camp for boys and girls ages 8 to 14 will be held at St. Paul's School from June 16 through June 20. The program runs from 9 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. at the school's Brooklandville campus.

Staffed by MSA coaches, the lacrosse camp will provide extensive experience in fundamentals and team play.

For further information contact camp director Mitch Whiteley at 825-4400.

Sign A Song

Shirley Foxwell, instructor and performer of sign language, teaches children how to sign songs at the Cloisters Children's Museum of Baltimore City on Saturday, May 25, at 2.


The Cloisters is open Wednesday through Friday, 10 to 4:30; Saturday and Sunday, 12 to 4. Museum admission is $2.00 for adults and children. No admission charged on Thursday.