Mervo, Western youths share 'Survival' honors

Probably determined to put a stop to domination of the Sam Lacy Scholarship awards by other area high schools, Mervo took down double honors Wednesday night at Martin's West.

The occasion was the annual Project Survival Dinner, at which time each year Project Survival awards two cash scholarships and one trophy in the name of the AFRO sports editor.

Cited as the most outstanding scholar-athletes of the popular Project Survival basketball program were Coretta Blake and Sean Daniels of Mervo, and Teresa Thomas of Western High School.

These honors in past years have gone to youngsters from Dunbar, City, Northwestern, Edmondson, Calvert Hall and Towson Catholic.

Blake and Daniels were introduced as winners of the $1500 cash scholarships, and Thomas received the trophy.

Normally, the trophy is presented to the youngster who previously has been assured financial aid from the school of his or her choice.

The Mervo pair will attend Frostburg State, and Thomas will matriculate at UMBC.

The banquet was designated as "An Evening With Don and Harlow," and it was the honoring of them – Mayor William Donald Schaefer and Harlow Fullwood – that was the centerpiece of the gala affair.

Tributes came to both from Gov. Harry Hughes, City Council President Clarence "Du" Burns, Senators Paul Sarbanes and Charles Mathias, U.S. Representative, Parren J. Mitchell and Barbara Mikulski and countless civic and business leaders.

Ron Mitchell new Coppin cage coach

Athletic Director Ron DeSouza Wednesday introduced 38-year-old Ron Mitchell as the new head basketball coach at Coppin State College.

Mitchell succeeds John Bates who resigned in March, shortly after the Eagles ended their season. During his 12 years at Coppin, Bate's teams won one NAIA national title, and last year were 7-7 in their first season in the MEAC.

Mitchell comes to the North Avenue institution after eight years as head coach at Cloucester County College in New Jersey.

In that period, he led the Jerseyans to 227 victories as opposed to 45 defeats.

He is a Gloucester graduate of 1973.

Tyson fight out of Garden

The May 20 fight between unbeaten heavyweight Mike Tyson and Mitchell Green has been moved from Madison Square Garden because of a possible scheduling conflict.

The New York Rangers could host a Stanley Cup final game on that date, considered unlikely when the bout was scheduled.

A spokesman for promoter Don King said the bout will probably be rescheduled in the New York area.

Area college nines slated for action

Coppin State College and Maryland, Eastern Shore field baseball teams for games this weekend at College Park.

The Eagles visit the University of Maryland today (Friday) at 3 p.m. And the Hawks play the Terps tomorrow (Saturday) at 2:30.

HACKERS' CORNER by Don Haskins

Seventy-nine men and women contestants fought blustery winds over the Forest Park Golf Course Sunday, pursuing honors in the 10th annual Clyde Martin Memorial Open Tournament.

The event was played as a benefit for the Larry Dean Memorial Scholarship Fund.

Clyde Martin was formerly assistant golf professional at Forest Park and Dwight D. Eisenhower golf courses and was private golf teacher to the immortal heavyweight champion of the world, Joe Louis.

During Clyde's heyday, he was unrivalled as a shotmaker, and is past winner of the National Negro Golf Championship as a professional.

What makes this tournament so special and next year's affair is expected to be even better -- is that two giants of our community are being honored for their unwavering and unselfish commitment to developing young talent—Clyde Martin for golf and Larry Dean for communications.

Awards presentations were made at the conclusion of play at the Kappa House.

Winners by flight:

CHAMPIONSHIP — A. Wilson, first; E. Winfrey, second; J. Largent, third.

FIRST FLIGHT — H. Baisden, T. Pimontal and T. Sanders in that order.

SECOND FLIGHT — J. McCargo, M. Winder and J. Sutton.

THIRD FLIGHT — F. Sutherland, A. Jackson and C. Smith.

SENIORS — F. Brice, A. Gale and T. Jackson in that order.

WOMEN — B. McLaughlin, first; D. Wilson, second, and A. James, third.

Chuck Thomas, tournament director, announces that the 8th annual Dudley F. Henry Memorial Golf Tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday, May 24-25, alternating between Forest Park and Clifton Park Golf courses, with the proceeds being donated to the United Negro College Fund and the Hampton University golf team in the amount of $1,000 each.

Dudley F. Henry was an alumnus of Hampton University. For more information, call Chuck Thomas 728-8565 or Wilbur Cooke 922-7505.

Enrollment closes May 15, and will be limited to the first 100 entries. Prizes include trips to the Bahamas.

Orioles set bonus night

Although the Orioles are a disappointment on the field to date, the Bird front office is busier than ever trying to assuage the fans.

A double-bonus program is scheduled this weekend at Memorial Stadium -- triple if the opposition is considered.

When the O's return home tonight (Friday), fans will be rewarded with picnic-pack hits as an added bonus to presenting the world champion Kansas City Royals in the opposing dugout.

Tomorrow's (Saturday) game with K.C. will have baseball gloves awaiting the customers.

While these tokens are not designed to erase the current record of the Birds on the field, some fans are sure to be pleased by the gesture.

Going into the opening of this 13-day home stand, the O's are 12-13, four games off the 16-9 pace they were on last year prior to concluding their disastrous season.

Terps pick Blount

Running back Alvin Blount was elected a tri-captain of the University of Maryland football team for 1986-87.

Blount, whose three-year career has produced 2,452 yards and 11 touchdowns for the Terps, will share field duties with two defensive players - noseguard Bruce Mesner and linebacker Chuck Faucette.

All are seniors.

MOTHER'S DAY TRIBUTES

AMOS - A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of our dear mother and grandmother, LILLIAN B. AMOS, who passed away January 27, 1981:
Dear mother, on this Mother's Day
What words can we impart
That would tell the true devotion
We have within our hearts.
No words can tell love's message
But this we know is true:
There's no one like a mother,
No mother quite like you.
LOVING DAUGHTER and GRANDCHILDREN and LOVING GREAT-GRANDDAUGHTER

BAILEY - A Mother's Day Tribute In memory of my dear mother, MYRTLE ELIZABETH(nee Dalton), who passed away November 5, 1984:
If you could just be here with me,
Or I could be there with you.
And we could chat of this and that
And the things we use to do.
Wouldn't it be wonderful,
Wouldn't the world seem gay
And wouldn't it be grand to be
Together, this Mother's Day.

BAILEY - A Mother's Day Tribute in loving memory of my dear mother, MYRTLE ELIZABETH BAILEY, who passed away November, 1984:
On this Mother's Day, Mom, dear
Remembrance sheds another tear
As etched upon love's window pane
I see your smiling face again.
My heart's great yearn finds no relief
Yet hope is not beyond belief.
That we will clasp each other's hand
Somewhere, sometime - we'll understand.
Love, MILDRED

BOOTS - A Mother's Day Tribute In memory of our dear mother, ELSIE BOOTS, who passed away September 3, 1972:
A tribute of everlasting love
For all that you have done
We know that God has given you
The rest that you have won.
DAUGHTERS and SONS

BRANCH - A Mother's Day Tribute in loving memory of our dear mother, MRS. BRUCE BRANCH, who passed away May 13, 1984:
On this Mother's Day, Mom, dear
Remembrance sheds another tear
As etched upon love's window pane
We see your smiling face again.
Our heart's great yearn finds no relief
Yet hope is not beyond belief.
That we will clasp each other's hand
Somewhere, sometime - we'll understand.
YOUR CHILDREN

BROWN - A Mother's Day Tribute in memory of my wife and our mother, PEGGY BROWN, who passed away May 3, 1978:
If you could just be here with us,
Or we could be There with you,
And we could chat of this and that
And the things we use to do.
Wouldn't it be wonderful,
Wouldn't the world seem gay
And wouldn't it be grand to be
Together, this Mother's Day.
LOVING HUSBAND and Sons TING and HARVEY

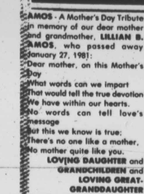
BRUCE - A Mother's Day Tribute In loving memory of our dear mother, MARDIE BRUCE, who passed away July 18, 1983:
The white carnation that We wear
Is just a part of the respect,
We have for you dear mother,
And we never will forget.
For you were mine and we remember
The trials you pulled us thru
The white carnation that we wear
Dear Mother, is our love for you.
Children
GLORIA DAVIS, BRENDA WHITE, JAMES, FRANCINE, WENTELL, DWAYNE, YVETTE and BRUCE



BYNUM - A Mother's Day Tribute In memory of my dear wife, our mother and grandmother, PAULINE E. BYNUM, who passed away March 5, 1978:
Mother's Day brings back memories
Of wonderful times we knew,
A Family Day together
For then dear, we had you.
And all these recollections
Of the happy days long gone,
Bring sadness and a heartache
As Mother's Day morning dawns.
Loving HUSBAND
LOVING CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN

CAMPBELL - A Mother's Day Tribute In loving memory of my dear Aunt, ELLAMAE CAMP-BELL, who passed away May 25, 1978:
If you could just be here with me,
Or I could be there with you.
And we could chat of this and that
And the things we used to do.
Wouldn't it be wonderful.
Wouldn't the world seem gay
And wouldn't it be grand to be
Together, this Mother's Day.
Niece, RONONA

DEFORD - A Mother's Day Tribute in loving memory of our dear mother, SARAH E. DEFORD, who passed away September 24, 1985:
Today is Mother's Day, dear mother.
A present we always did give
But God has taken you far away
In a much better place to live.
You were such a wonderful mother
So kind, unselfish and true;
Our proudest possession, dear mother,
Was no one - other than you.
YOUR FAMILY

FORD - A Mother's Day Tribute In memory of our dear beloved mother, MRS. CARRIE E. FORD, who passed away on May 4, 1966:
There is not a day that goes by Mom,
that we do not speak your name.
Since you have been gone, life has not been the same.
The sweet memories of you are so precious and dear.
And will live with us year after year.
God blessed us with a beautiful ruby rare.
He blessed us with you, Mother Dear.
You stuck by us through good times and bad.
You were the best Mother anyone could have had.
You sacrificed your life no one could give more.
We know He had something very good for you in store.
God alone knows the loss we bear.
God alone knows how much we care.
How much we miss you words could never say.
The loss grows deeper with each passing day.
Someday we will meet on that Blessed Shore.
And will live together forever more.
Forever In Our Hearts.
Devoted daughters,
MISS DORIS FORD and MISS MARLENE FORD
