Hotline volunteers needed

Citizens Against Spousal Assault (CASA) needs volunteers to become Hotline Counselors and Advocates. CASA is a non-profit organization dedicated to the elimination of domestic physical and psychological abuse, in both marital and non-marital relationships.

Volunteers will participate in a 30-hour training session during which they will explore the complicated relationships between the people caught in situations of domestic violence. They will be trained in communication skills, basic counseling, and crisis intervention.

Domestic violence is a pervasive, but often ignored, fact of our society. CASA's success depends upon people who are willing to acknowledge the problem and learn to do something about it. Please call Denise Tilrico, Volunteer Coordinator, at 997-0304 or 997-CASA to learn more about how you can help.

Free cardiac counseling

If you or someone in your family suffer from heart disease, Mercy Hospital is sponsoring a free cardiac counseling program that can help.

The free program begins June 5 and meets six consecutive Thursdays from 7 to 0 p.m. in Mercy's Marian Room.

Counselors include a nurse, dietitian, social workers, psychiatric nurse, physical therapy, pharmacist and cardiologist. Group discussion, films and relaxation techniques are featured.

To register, call Doris Owen at 332-9603.

LOCAL PHI DELTA KAPPA SORORS SHINE AT REGIONAL

Gamma Chapter's own Ardena S. Dixon, Eastern Regional Director of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc., did a marvelous job with the Forty-Sixth Annual Regional Conference held in Roanoke, Va. Soror Dixon had a myriad of well planned and executed activities that were enjoyed by all.

The Conference's theme "Pursuit of Excellence: A Challenge to Fulfill," was realized through motivational activities and workshops that lifted the torch of enlightenment in educational sororal pursuits.

Baltimore's Gamma Chapter is the proud owner of a beautiful three-foot trophy, for having won first place in the scrapbook competition. Members of the scrapbook committee were Soror Gloria Johnson, Soror Lois Kyler, Soror Velma Evans; chairperson and Basileus Leana Ferrell.

Sorors, approximately four hundred strong, gathered for the conference which was hostessed by Alpha Tau Chapter. Members of the Gamma Chapter attending the conference were Basileus Leana Ferrell, First Anti Basileus Nellie Bowie; Second Anti-Basileus Elaine M. Davis; Sorors Rose Gallop, Angie McCullum, Vera Bethune, Charlotte Brooks, Beatrice Avery, Helena Wright, Marjorie Hunt, Olive Dulaney, Virgie Walls and Wilma Gainey.

Gamma chapter officers are Leana Ferrell, basileus; Nellie Bowie, first anti basileus; Elaine M. Davis, second anti basileus; Geraldine Sheppard, third anti basileus; Angie McCullum, grammateus; Wynonia Rhock, epistoleus; Regina Patterson, tamiouchos; Ruth Fauntleroy, tamias; Elaine T. DR. JOHN L. WRIGHT HONORED AT HCJ BANQUET

On Thursday evening May 1, the Helen Christine Johnson Foundation held its First Annual Banquet at the Kittamaqundi Room in the Rouse Building, Lakefront Columbia, MD. The Foundation honored Dr. Rev. John L. Wright for his services to citizens of the state of Maryland through his presidency of the Howard County NAACP and his ministry at the First Baptist Church of Gilford.

In attendance were all members of the Howard County Council who awarded the Rev. Wright a Council citation for his services. Silver Ramsey of the Governor's office presented Dr. Wright with a community service award, and Mayor William Donald Schaefer issued a Proclamation for May 1, 1986 to be set aside as Rev. John L. Wright day in Baltimore City.

Other awards were presented by Bob Cheeks, Chairman of the board of the Welfare Rights Organization and President of the Black United Fund of Greater Baltimore and Rose-Marie St. Jean Vice-President of the Foundation (HCJ) who presented the First Annual award for outstanding community service to Dr. Wright.

More than one hundred supporters and guests attended the Foundation's First Annual Fundraiser. Councilwoman Ruth Keeton gave the keynote address.

The purpose of the HCJ Foundation is to provide philanthropic support to projects that address critical need of poor communities. The Board of Directors has identified education, housing, hunger, health care, unemployment and economic development as some of the areas that need immediate attention. The support of projects which have a positive, long-range impact on the lives of the poor will form the cornerstone of the Foundation's giving.

The Helen Christine Johnson Foundation is a living memorial to Christine, who was a resident of Columbia, MD., from 1970 until her death on May 1, 1985. During much of this time she managed low and moderate income housing of the Interfaith Housing Corporation, now the Columbia Housing Corp.

ABWA TO HOLD BUSINESS ASSOCIATE EVENT

On June 16, Freedom Chapter of the American Business Women's Association (ABWA) will hold its annual Business Associate Event.

The annual event is designed to honor the business associates and employees of ABWA members and to provide an opportunity to learn about other fields, industries and positions.

Dr. Betty Jean Park, President of B.J. Park and Associates will be the guest speaker. Dr. Park's firm specializes in services to the minority business community.

The meeting will be held at Meushaw's Restaurant on Security Blvd. at 6 p.m.

Those desiring additional information about ABWA may contact the following persons: Cynthia Hamm, President 666-6647, or Dolores Ali, Chairman Business Associate, 945-8294.

DESIGNER GLORIA JENNINGS (R) gives an adjustment to the frock (designed by her) and worn by Teresa Bryce during a recent open house featuring her designs which are noted for their flair and magnificent use of color.

Ambassador Todman, Cab feted:

Reception hosted for MSU Commencement speaker, honoree

GOVERNOR HARRY HUGHES AND HIS WIFE (left) came to the residence of Dr. Earl S. Richardson, MSU President, this past Saturday (May 17) to attend a reception honoring Cabell "Cab" Calloway and the ahonorable Terence A. Todman (3rd from right), U.S. Ambassador to Denmark and the keynote speaker at Morgan's Commencement Exercises this past Sunday. Dr. Richardson and his wife Sheila hosted the festive event. Francis Gates, Chairman, MSU Board of Regents and his wife were also among the dignitaries present.

Jessola Jones (L) greets Camay Murphy, the daughter of Cab Calloway, at the reception which was attended by scores of Morgan supporters.

Dr. Sandye J. McIntyre, the Morgan Professor who has personally spearheaded Morgan's record breaking generation of 70 Fulbright Scholars, chats enthusiastically with Thelma Cox, the authoress of the poem "I Am a Morganite."

DR. JAMES G. FLEMING, retired Morgan professor and current AFRO columnist, greets William Boucher, a member of the Morgan Board of Regents, and Ambassador Terence Todman.

This past Saturday evening, there was a festive reception at the residence of Dr. Earl S. Richardson, the President of Morgan State University, to honor the Honorable Terence A. Todman, U.S. Ambassador to Denmark, and Cabell "Cab" Calloway, the famed Jazz musician, both of whom received Honorary Degrees at Morgan's Commencement Exercises this past Sunday.

During the elegant event, the guests dined on sumptuous hors d'oeuvres that included carved steamship round of beef plus assorted vegetables, cheeses and pastries.

The conversation was scintillating as the guests mingled in the spacious living room as well as downstairs recreation area.

Many of the guests opted to take advantage of the beautiful weather and found seating outside on the patio which is neatly nestled along with the house into a rolling hillside on Cold Spring Lane on the easternmost portion of the campus.

The reception was held to give Ambassador Todman and Cab Calloway an opportunity to meet many of the faculty members, administrators and supporters of Morgan State University, prior to the two gentlemen participating in the ceremony on Sunday which would produce more than 700 new Morgan graduates.

Much of the success of the effervescent event can oe attributed to the skillful coordination of Dr. Stanley Rich, Mrs. Vera Hall, Ms. Linda McClure, Mrs. Marjorie Banks and Mrs. Barbara Napfel.

Eric Richardson, (L) the son of Dr. Richardson and Michelle Myster (right) get an opportunity to meet the famed Cab Calloway who received an Honorary Degree in Fine Arts from Morgan State University this past Sunday.
