A Vision in Apricot and Ivory

There were wedding bells and flowers at the end of every three pews and lovely baskets of flowers banking the altar last Saturday, May 24 as Appedella McClain of the 1500 blk. of N. Carey St., daughter of Agnes M. Simon and Samuel McClain said her marriage vows to Reginald Jones, of the 3800 blk. of Edmondson Ave., son of Alma Rowlette (of this city) at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, Preston and Gay Sts. at 1:30 p.m.

The Rev. Clifford Johnson officiated the double - ring ceremony, which was highlighted by Musical Programs Organist James Foster and solos by Gwen Irving and Bridgette Williams of Florence, SC.

The bride's gown was of exquisite crystal organza with high neck and illusions yoke. The center collar was trimmed with dangle beads. The long sleeves were adorned with illusions sewn on venise lace and pearls.

Her cathedral train with three tiers of fluted ruffles at the edge.

She carried a lovely bouquet mixed with cascade and baby's breath, carnations and pom poms, with a full bouquet to throw.

Maid - of - Honor Marlene, Baltimore, wore a long silk apricot gown with hooped skirt and a train and ruffles in the back. Her headdress was a crown with a veil of ivory with pearls on it. She carried a parasol decorated with flowers which had apricot bows at its end.

Bridesmaids Patricia Granger, Brenda Whiting, Annette Johnson, Robin Powers, Delores Bruce, all of Baltimore, and Pernessa Harold, Azalee McCullough and Odessa Elliott, Florence, SC, wore gowns like those of the Maid-of-Honor, also in apricot, and wore lace no - fingered gloves. They too, carried flower - decorated parasols.

Flower Girls Aveille McClain, Azeille Lowery annd Ateille Lowery, all of Baltimore, wore apricot gowns like those of the bridesmaids, and carried baskets of silk flowers.

Best man was Michael McClain, of Baltimore. Ushers were Tommy Dorsey, Perry Harris, William Davis, David Jones, Frank Rowlette, Hartley House and Rufus Wilson, all of Baltimore. Ring Bearers were Brian Williams and Jason Jones, also of Charm City.

The groom and all male attendants, including the ring bearers, wore ivory tails, and shirts, with apricot cummerbunds and bow ties.

The reception hosted for the couple after the ceremony was held at La Paragon Hall, Forest Pk. Ave. It featured a buffet dinner and music by Disco Deejay.

The couple, who went in style to their reception in a Rolls Royce, danced their first dance to the tune "On My Own."

Best Man Michael McClain, drank a toast to the bride and groom. There was much celebrating and dancing, and the bride and groom cut a cake which had been designed to display the bridal party in miniature.

A second reception will be hosted for them at the Palmetto Inn July 5 in Florence, SC, and a linen shower for the new bride will be given on July 4 by her coordinator Mae Helen Williams at her home in Florence, SC.

The bride is a graduate of Northwestern High School, University of Maryland, Baltimore County, with a B.S. Degree in Business Administration and of Coppin State College with a B.S. Degree in Education. She is employed as a supervisor with Loyola Federal Savings and Loan.

The groom is a graduate of Edmondson High School, and is employed with the Mid - Atlantic Coca Cola Plant.

For their honeymoon in Hawaii, the bride chose as her traveling outfit a mauve taffeta dress by Halston.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Jones will be at home in Columbia, MD when their home, now under construction, is completed.

Five vans came from Florence, SC, carrying family members of the bride, and the bride's grandmother, also of Florence, who is 83-years-old, was in attendance.

In addition, there were two vans bearing guests from Newark, NJ, three from Ohio and many guests from California and New York.

Out - of - town guests who witnessed their wedding were Bobby and Naomie Smith, Leroy and Edna Mae McCoullogh, Wilbert and Willamena Moses and Daniel and Sandra Williams, of South Carolina;

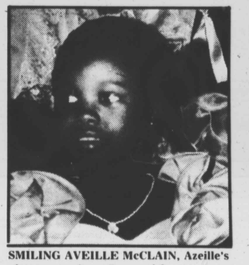

Also, Edward and Patricia Simon, Willie and Angela Simon, of New Jersey; Billy and Shirley Gas, of Rhode Island; Michael and Linda Cartwright, of Pennsylvania; Sabriana Rowlette of Portland, OR and Kevin Grover of White Marsh, MD.

THE HAPPY BRIDE AND GROOM are whisked from the church in the luxury of a Rolls Royce.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM SAMUEL McCLAIN, father of the bride, to his daughter, Abby.

SMILING AVEILLE McCLAIN, Azeille's sister, was also a flower girl.

A FAMILY AFFAIR — Michael McClain, brother of the bride, and Agnes Simon, his mother, attend the reception.

THE WEDDING GUESTS — Alma Rowlette, mother of the groom, and her son, David Jones, dance at the reception.

DAINTY LITTLE AZEILLE LOWERY, flower girl and the bride's daughter, displays that look of innocence.

SALUTE YOUR BRIDE, AND THE GROOM properly embraced his new, beautiful bride.

GREETINGS AND CONGRATULATIONS to the bride from Raymond Jones and Delores Harris, uncle and aunt of the groom.
