CRIME AND PUNISHMENT

Village man kills friend, child, self

By Alisa Samuels
AFRO Staff Writer

A 22-year-old Edmondson Village man, described as possessing a beautiful personality, unleashed a brutal and ugly side Tuesday afternoon, fatally wounding two people and shooting himself in the mouth in an apparent murder-suicide attempt, police said.

On April 12, police found William Caldwell, of the 100 block of Kossuth Street, on a sofa at his girlfriend's (Theresa Brooks, 19) Rokeby Road home, with a .22-caliber semi-automatic handgun in his hand.

Brooks, who was babysitting her two-year-old niece Cierra Stokes, was pronounced dead on the scene with gunshot wounds to her face and right side of her body. The little girl was shot in the head and died Wednesday afternoon at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Agent Arlene Jenkins, spokesperson for the Baltimore City Police Department, said.

Caldwell is listed in critical condition at University Hospital, a hospital spokeswoman said.

"He was a beautiful person," said Charlotte Dorsey, who has known Caldwell for 20 years. "I was shocked."

According to friends of the couple, Brooks had ended her relationship with Caldwell this week.

"Everybody is still stunned and shocked. I can't believe that could happen to a family like that," said 34-year-old neighbor Freddie Capel.

"That family was a great family. They got along with everybody," he added.

Although police discovered the semi-automatic handgun in Caldwell's hand, the department has not determined if the gun is the same gun that caused Brooks and Cierra's deaths.

"We know that his wounds were self-inflicted," Agent Jenkins said. " . . . If we find in fact that he shot the two others (he could face two counts of murder)."

She said Theresa's nine-year-old sister found the bodies. The incident occurred shortly afternoon police said.

Caldwell was studying to be a computer programmer, Dorsey said.

Trio caught in separate cocaine cases

Maria Vasquez

By Ejike Obineme
AFRO Staff Writer

A Miami Beach woman, Maria Consuelo Vasquez Whitehair, pleaded guilty in Baltimore Circuit Court to possession with intent to distribute cocaine, in the amount of one half pound.

Police information stated that Whitehair, who is originally from Columbia, South America, flew into Baltimore from Florida on Dec. 12, 1987 and was apprehended at Shoney's Motel at 1401 Bloomfield Ave., while attempting to gain entrance to a room there to conduct a cocaine transaction.

When Whitehair saw the police, she tried to get rid of a handbag by throwing it from the second floor balcony to the street level parking lot, where upon impact, a plastic bag containing the cocaine fell from the handbag.

Disposition is set before Judge Arrie Davis.

Calvin Lacey

In another cocaine - related case, Calvin Lacey of 959 Crosswind Place, Cockeysville, Maryland, pleaded guilty to six counts of distribution of cocaine to undercover Baltimore City narcotics detective Jesse McClain, and one count of possession with intent to distribute cocaine.

The six transactions ranged over a period of time from October to Dec. 1987, and the total amount of cocaine involved was approximately one-half pound.

Lacey, a former Baltimore City employee, was under investigation for drug activity during the fall of 1987.

According to a report from the Office of the State's Attorney for Baltimore City, a number of sales were conducted at 415 North Calvert Street, Lacey's place of employment, and 1204 Walters Avenue, the Baltimore City home of Lacey's mother.

Disposition is set for Friday, June 3, 1988, pending a pre-sentence investigation.

The State is recommending ten years to the Maryland Division of Correction. Presiding Judge Arrie Davis, indicated that he is not inclined to undercut the State's offer, but he will allow the defense to present evidence that might make the sentence to be less severe during disposition.

Darryl Waring

Darryl Waring, 19, of 860 Columbus Avenue, New York, was sentenced to 10 years in prison by Circuit Court Judge Edward J. Angeletti, on April 6, 1988, after pleading guilty to the charge of possession of cocaine in sufficient quantity to indicate an intent to distribute.

Stuart O. Simms, Baltimore City State's Attorney, said that Judge Angeletti suspended eight of those years and ordered that Waring be placed on five years supervised probation after his release.

Waring was also ordered to pay a $500.00 fine.

Assistant State's Attorney Robert Raymond, who prosecuted the case for the State, said that on the afternoon of May 19, 1987, Waring had been travelling into Baltimore's Pennsylvania Station on the Metroliner Train from New York City.

Due to Waring's suspicious actions, Detective Christopher Rayburn approached Waring in the train station's concourse and asked him what he knew about the drug trafficking problem in Baltimore City.

Waring, acting nervously, quickly admitted to being in possession of cocaine. Waring then removed from the inside of his pants, a bag containing 35.6 grams of 75 percent pure cocaine and was arrested at that point.

Correction

The AFRO, based on incorrect information, reported April 5 that a man wanted for murder was spotted inside a downtown nightclub. The AFRO regrets the error.

Pardon us while we stretch to make room for the singles gossip column.

We will leave no stone unturned as we snoop, party, socialize and dignify ourselves to make a name for singles.

Everyone has done the strictly personal ads, but names, faces and places are what people want to read and hear about.

So, here goes our first gossip column on singles and what they're doing.

* * *

We don't hear too much about the group "Every Friday." It seems as if they kind of fell apart at the seams during the height of the Xmas season.

* * *

While at the beauty parlor — Debbie Wright and Rochelle Bridges of WJZ have flocked to Von's Hair Salon on St. Paul Street.

You can get just about any style you want . . . from punk rock to the most sophisticated . . . however, let us remind you that the price of a dandruff treatment is extra now, but it does come with personalized services.

* * *

With the GBC's Oriole Luncheon coming up soon, this may be an opportunity to meet some single fellows at the new downtown Inner Harbor Stouffer's Place.

Ticket price is $25.00 . . . foot note . . . did Eddie Murray tie the knot? Some people do get cold feet.

Hot off the press . . . Coppin's new gymnasium has a great exercise program for singles as well as others . . . Dr. James Bennette owner of Jade Fitness has a great aquatic aerobic program . . . check it out.

It can be the spot to shape up and meet new people. Coed aerobics will make you shape up faster if you are looking for that special someone. It kind of gives you something to huff and puff about in common.

* * *

I found out the other day from a group of single men, that they are looking for women who have great educational backgrounds and can fit into any party, political or social scene without any embarrassment. So ladies brush up on your etiquette. And gentlemen — do you fit the bill?

* * *

Kentucky's nite life is jumping. I was down there for a conference on the Black Family and ran into Dr. Betty Dickerson from the National Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta. It seems as if she and Dhanya Zigler, a video film producer were talking shop about marketing concepts for black single parents.

* * *

I guess it could be said that the international singles spot is in the Carribean. True love can be found across the waters. A couple of people who travel back and forth at least twice a month, said they found their heart in the Islands.

* * *

Looking for a single guy.

Well I found out that there is a big hunk of a man floating around right here.

Girls, girls, girls, figure out these initials and go for it. N. C. is very single.

Here are the particulars. He doesn't drink, doesn't like hot peppers, and hates going to the market.

He told me that his refrigerator could be growing something inside it for all he knows, since he seldom looks into it.

He's at the office by 6:00 a.m. to check in on the London Stock Market. So, if you can handle the 6 a.m. wake-up call, put in your bid.

Richard Rowe has left the Urban League and is now with the City. Word is they created a position especially for him. Stay tuned.

IN MEMORIAM

KEARSON - In loving memory of my dear father, JUDGE H. KEARSON, who passed away April 13, 1987:
Loving and kind in all his ways.
Upright and just to the end of his days.
Sincere and true, in his heart and mind.
Beautiful memories he left behind.
Daughter, BARBARA ANN and FAMILY

TYLER-RANDALL - In loving memory of our dear sister, CATHERINE VICTORIA TYLER-RANDALL, who passed April 12, 1987:
If I had known what trouble you were bearing, what griefs were in the silence of your face, I would have been more gentle and more caring and try to give you gladness for a space. I would have brought more warmth into the place if I had known. If I had known what thoughts despairing drew you.
Why do we never try to understand
I would have lent a little friendship to you and slipped my hand within your hand and made your stay more pleasant in the land if I had known.
Loving Sister DORETHA, Brothers, BOYD AND ALEXANDER
