Ms. Rachel Barrett

Rachel Barrett

Services were held on July 1 for Rachel Barrett at the March Funeral Homes — East.

A native of Belair, MD. Ms. Barrett was born on April 27, 1910 and died on June 25.

Educated in the Baltimore City School system, Ms. Barrett was a member of Mount Olive Baptist Church.

Survivors include: three sisters, Mildred Williams, Emma Savoy and Edna Stepp; two brothers, Chester and William Barrett; one aunt, Sara Crofton; and other relatives and friends.

James Clayton Andrews, III

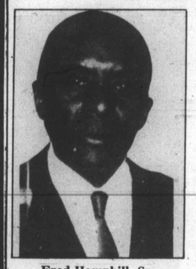
James Clayton Andrews, III

Services for James Clayton Andrews, III, were held at the Triumph Missionary Baptist Church on June 29.

Born May 14, 1969, Andrews died June 18 while in the army. After attending the Baltimore Public School system he graduated from Lake Clifton Senior High in 1987.

Survivors include; his mother, Mertina Marie Harris; father James Clayton Andrews; sister, Yvonne Harris; brother, Antione Harris, a half sister, Tamara Andrews; and other relatives and friends.

Fred Hemphill, Sr.



Fred Hemphill, Sr.

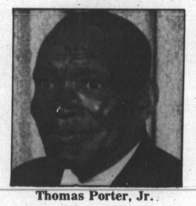
Fred Hemphill, Sr., a native of Spottenberg County, SC was eulogized on June 29.

Born on October 1, 1914, Hemphill died on June 25 at The Liberty Medical Center in Baltimore.

Married to Irene Allen in 1934, Hempshill was a construction worker for over 40 years and a member of Dawn Chapel in Gaffney, SC.

He leaves to mourn: wife Irene Hemphill; two sons, Fred Hemphill, Jr., and Harold Hemphill; two daughters, Ida May Everette and Nettie Everette, all of Baltimore; sister Nettie Little John, and many other relatives and friends.

Thomas Porter, Jr.



Thomas Porter, Jr.

Funeral services for Thomas Porter, Jr., born December 5, 1911, were held at the Elizabeth L. Phillips Funeral Home on June 29.

Porter died June 25 at Baltimore County General Hospital after a long illness.

Educated in Sumter, South Carolina, the retired construction worker joined Clark's United Methodist Church where he sang on the choir.

In 1934, he married Rosa Wilson Porter, also deceased. In Baltimore, Porter was employed at Bethlehem Steel and was a member of Orchard Street Methodist church and was a member of Gillis Memorial Church until his illness.

Survivors include: four daughters, Louise Bailey of Montgomery County; Thomasina Morris, Elizabeth Porter and Rosa L. McCoy, all of Baltimore; eleven grandchildren, and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Shirley Lucille Rory

Shirley L. Rory

Shirley Lucille Rory, born December 12, 1934 was eulogized at the New Psalmist Baptist Church June 28.

Ms. Rory died on June 24. After receiving her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools, she worked for the government and the First Army Headquarters.

Macedonia Baptist was her childhood church home and the New Psalmist Baptist Church was her last affiliation.

Left to mourn are: son Howard Reese Rory, daughter Sharon Marie Watson, three grandchildren, three sisters, four brothers and many relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held June 13 for King Solomon Gaylord at Union Baptist Church in Turner Station.

He died on June 9 at the Shock Trauma Unit at the University of Maryland Hospital.

Receiving his education at Bragg Elementary School in Sparrows Point, Maryland, Gaylord was baptized at Union Baptist Church. After serving in WWII from 1943 to 1946, he was honorably discharged and employed by the U.S. Post Office.

Left to mourn are four daughters, Marlene Brown, Sheila Carter, Carolyn White and Vivian Thortan; nine grandchildren; three great grandchildren and other friends and relatives.

Edward Williams

Edward A. Williams
Memorialized today

Funeral services for Edward Williams were held today (Friday), July 8, at St. Mark's Catholic Church, 26 Melvin Avenue, Catonsville, Md. at 10 a.m. The burial, immediately following the funeral services, were at Arbutus Cemetery.

Born in 1912, Edward Williams received his elementary and secondary education through the Baltimore School System. He earned his undergraduate degree from Morgan State College. From there he went on to earn a master's degree in guidance and administration from New York University.

In 1932, Williams accepted the position of shop instructor at Dunbar High School in Baltimore City.

From 1953-1973 Edward Williams served as the first principal for the George F. Bragg School in Catonsville, Md.

His personal interests were intriguing and varied. They ranged from industrial arts and bowling to cooking and gardening.

Throughout his 73 years, Williams was an avid participant in social affairs. He was one of the founding members of the Baltimore Guardsmen.

He was also a member of the Knights of Columbus, the Men's Club, Kappa Alpha Psi, the Banneker Senior Citizens Group, the Optimist Club and the Ten Club.

Williams is remembered as a civic-minded humanitarian, and for his love for young people. What made him most outstanding to those who knew him was his general love for life.

In memory of Edward Williams, the humanitarian and the educator, an academic scholarship fund is being established in his name.

Donations for the fund may be sent to: Guardsmen, Inc., c/o Mr. Norman Parker, Jr., 700 Hunting Place, Baltimore, Md. 21229.

Mr. Williams is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Mason Williams; daughter, Deborah Elizabeth Williams; grandson, Edward Malik; sister, Mary Savage and brother, Franklyn T. Williams.
