A WORD OF HOPE

By Maxine L. Wallace

"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." John 8:32.

Did you know that Satan is the father of lies? Yes...and it is his job to deceive us...to confuse us...to utterly destroy us. The Bible says that Satan is roaming to and fro seeking whom he may devour.

Satan is your enemy, and he wants to kill you...he wants to kill your hopes and dreams...he wants to break your spirit...he wants to do you in.

Did you know that some thoughts you are housing are not your own? Did you know that that thought that you're all by yourself and nobody cares about you is not your own?

When is the last time you had a thought of giving up on life...of going back to your former way of life before you gave your life to Christ?

When is the last time a thought came to you that living a holy and sanctified life is not possible?

Satan is subtle in his attacks and the first place he targets is our mind...our thoughts...for he knows that if he can get us to believe a lie, we'll continue to live in the bondage of sin...we'll continue to live beneath our privilege. We'll continue to live defeated and unfruitful lives.

But there is something about the truth that cancels out a lie; for truth crushed to the ground will rise again. Jesus said I am the way, the truth, and the life. Jesus is the truth.

And so it is that Jesus is the living Word of the Father. Thy Word, oh Lord is truth! My friend, you can stand on the Word of God... you can stand on the truth of God.

For God is not a man that he should lie...If God said it, you can believe it...you can count on it...you can rest on it. God will never let you down...He can do all things but fail.

The Bible says, And ye shall know the truth... Beloved, God wants you to know the truth of His Word...that in Christ Jesus, you are more than a conqueror.

You don't have to give up, because you're on the winning team...and the battle has already been won...You are the apple of God's eye...You are His love creation...

You are sons and daughters of the Most High God...You are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people...

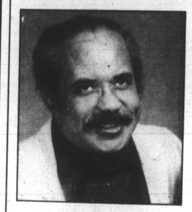
You are healed by the blood of the lamb...You've been set free...Oh how, He loves you. You have all power over the enemy...for you are seated with Christ Jesus in heavenly places.

You can do all things through Christ who strengths you...Don't give up...look up...Look and Live!...Look and Live!

Yes, the truth shall make you free...the truth liberates...the truth sets you free. Are you free today? If you've been set free by the truth of God's Word...stand-fast in your liberty...

My friend, do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage.

AREA OBITUARIES



Joseph Bernard Berry, Jr.

Services for Joseph Bernard Berry, Jr., took place March 9, at Metropolitan United Methodist Church.

Berry, son of the late Joseph Bernard Berry, Sr., and Beulah Madden, was born March 22, 1933. He died in Philadelphia, PA., where he had resided since 1970.

Joe, as he was known, in his early childhood, was a member of Metropolitan Church Sunday School and later joined St. James Episcopal Church.

Joe became a Science instructor at Morgan College in 1964. He also served in the U.S. Army. He was a member of several organizations including the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

He leaves to mourn: one daughter, Rebecca Joanne Berry; one sister, Bernadine Harper; three brothers, Walthall, Wildred and Melvin; three sisters-in-law; one brother-in-law; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Rev. Henry W. Jones

Herbert Wadsworth Jones was born to the union of Herbert K. Jones and Agnes Nelson Jones, on December 4, 1910 in Monkton, Baltimore County, Maryland.

After Rev. Jones completed his elementary education, the family moved to Baltimore where he continued to study. He graduated from Frederick Douglas High School, with honors from Morgan State College, Lincoln University Seminary and McCormick Theological Seminary. He also studied at the University of Mexico.

He married Geneva James on June 29, 1937. They moved to Chicago, Illinois and united with Grace Presbyterian Church under pastorate of Rev. Augustus Bennett. Herb was later ordained as a Presbyterian minister and installed as the pastor of Hope Presbyterian Church in Englewood.

Surviving him are: his loving and cherished wife, Geneva; three sisters, Agnes Williams, Ava Chatman, Marie Brown; three brothers-in-law; James Williams, Irvine James and Jerome Burton all of Baltimore, Maryland; a host of nieces, nephews, and many, many devoted friends. Herb shall be missed, but always remembered.

Rev. Luerean Giles

Services for Rev. Luerean Giles were 11 a.m. March 14 at the New Jerusalem F.B.H. Church of God of the Americas on North Rosedale Street. She died March 10 at the University Hospital.

Rev. Giles, 75, opened the Emmanuel Temple F.B.H. Church on the corners of Frederick Avenue and Catherine Streets in 1969. She served as the pastor of the church.

Rev. Giles was district supervisor, president and ambassador for the Fire Baptized Church.

She is survived by her son, Charles Raymond Giles; niece, Eula M. Johnson, nephew, Walter C. Johnson; cousin, Freddie Simms of Anderson; seven sisters-in-law, six great nieces, five great nephews and one great great nephew.

Mildred F. Morris

Funeral services for the Mildred F. Morris, daughter of the late John Edward and Dottie Lee Ford were held on Wednesday, December 12 at St. Mary's Church.

Mildred Morris grew up in the Govan's area of Baltimore City and attended the city's public schools.

She leaves to mourn: her devoted husband, B. Henry Morris; two daughters, Terry and Lee Adele; grandsons, Evan, Nicholas, Christopher and Austin; sister, Elaine F. Hayes, brother, Jr. Edward Ford; a devoted niece, Betty B. Hall; a loving cousin, Louise Martin; and many other devoted relatives and friends.

Lots of sunshine in the voices of these employees in the Baltimore NAACP office, Ms. Linda Sharp, assistant to the branch's director, George Buntin, and Ms. Tony Martin, secretary.

IF YOU ASK ME

By Bettye Moss

Orchids to Baltimore Gas and Electric Co. service man, Jim Shock. We watched him find a residential stove leak in nothing flat - something several of his co - workers had not done on previous visits.

* * *

Sunshine aplenty in the voice of Carlton C. Douglass, the McCulloh St. funeral director who is also president of the National Funeral Directors and Morticians' Association.

More Orchids

Orchids to these congenial good neighbors who shared a table to the Links' luncheon - fashion show Easter Monday: Mrs. Irene E. Savage, retired corrections department specialist and Bethel AME Church member; Mrs. Dorothy L. Harris, St. Edwards member; Mrs. Charlotte C. Holt, the retired counselor (who was snazzy in black off-the-face straw bonnet).

And, to these Metropolitan Methodist Church members — Mrs. Tommie White, Mrs. Mildred Moore, Mrs. Winfred Ashby and Mrs. Joan Lochman.

* * *

Special orchids to Mrs. Loretta Valentine, the good neighbor who is a shut-in. She's longtime member of St James' P.E. Church who observed her 83rd birthday on March 19.

* * *

Mailbag: — J. F. Washington writes: "I like your smile salutes. Please mention the nice smile many of us observed on the face of Rev. St. George Crosse, (He is the HUD (Housing and Urban Development executive). Not everyone will agree with some of his views, but you have to agree that he manages to keep a pleasant manner. Thank you."

Thank You to Reader Washington.
